LW 1801192 Narc-poss Methamphetamine	Society VICTIM of Narc-poss Methamphetamine (C), at 1699 Taylor Ave/s Rotherwood Ave, Evansville, IN, between 23:52, 01/18/2018 and 00:01, 01/19/2018. Reported: 01/19/2018. I was sitting in front of H&R Block on Covert ave facing east. I observed a white suv traveling east on Covert Ave run the stop sign at the corner of Covert and Lodge Ave. The white suv turned north on Rotherwood. I initiated a traffic stop on the suv at the corner of Rotherwood and Taylor Ave. I approached the driver side of the suv. I explained to the driver the reason for the traffic stop. The driver of the suv stated that he had a driver license but they were suspended. I had all three subjects exit the vehicle. The vehicle was searched and I located a clear tube inside the center console. Inside the clear tube was a white rock like substance. I read all three subjects their miranda warnings. All three subjects agreed that they understood their rights. The driver of the suv stated that he did not know how the methamphetamine got inside the center console. The driver was arrested for the above charge. Tri state was called to tow the suv because the driver did not have a valid drivers license. While driving to lockup the male stated that he use to be on methamphetamine but he was trying to turn his life around. The male also stated that he smokes methamphetamine because he is scared of needles.		GILES, L. L.

Reported: 01/19/2018. I was working off duty at Deaconess ER when I was advised that a nurse on Unit 3900 ICU requested a battery report. When I arrived at unit 3900, I spoke with the victim, Rakestraw, who stated that she was taking care of the suspect, Overton. Overton was attempting to pull out her ventilator tube as Rakestraw was attempting to keep her from doing so. Overton finally removed her vent tube and then focused her attention toward Rakestraw. Overton then kicked Rakestraw in the right rib cage and struck Rakestraw in the left side of her face with an open fist causing pain to both ribs and facial area. Several other nurses responded to assist and Overton was finally restrained. RICKENBAUGH witnessed the battery. I then met with Overton, who stated that she had no idea why she was in the hospital, and had no idea why I was called. Overton denied ever striking Rakestraw. I then began this report while standing outside Overton's room. In just a few minutes, nurses were summons back to Overton's room due to the fact that she was trying to get out of her bed that she was restrained in. In a overt action to confirm that Overton was well within her mental capabilities, Overton attempted to spit direct on the assisting nurses. I then began to explain to her that a report was being made regarding the battery and attempted to explain the process, at which time Overton's response was "shut up, I dont want to hear you". Staff continued to readjust Overton in her bed while battleing her as she attempted to break free.		MATTHEWS, J. J.
