Enforcement	Reported: 01/26/2018. On January 26, 2018 hours I was northbound on Heidelberg at Morgan. At that time I did observe a black Dodge truck swerve onto the west sidewalk and almost hitting the telephone pole at Bosse Field. I then called for a car for assistance. As I was waiting for assistance the truck began revving its motor and then drove across the lane of traffic into oncoming traffic. At that time Officer Jerry Tooley attempted to stop the vehicle at Louisiana and Heidelberg. Tooley had his emergency lights and sirens activated and the subject refused to stop. The truck continued driving south on Heidelberg until he finally stopped at Heidelberg and Virginia. The subject, which was later identified as Brian Weightman stopped on the sidewalk. While Tooley was attempting to stop Weightman he swerved into the other lane of traffic on more than one occasion. Weightman driver status was never received through the Indiana BMV.
