Reported: 01/17/2018. Police were dispatched to 2202 Burdette in reference to a subject with a gun. The caller stated she observed a man behind the gas station at 4301 Pollack, urinating in public view. She yelled at the man, and that's when he pulled out a chrome, small caliber handgun and pointed it at her. He said, "Bitch, I'll shoot you right here." The caller's fiance ran to her aid, and started to approach the suspect. The suspect pointed the gun at him, and said that he would shoot him too. The caller told the suspect she was calling the police, and he said, "I don't care. I ain't from around here." He then put the gun away, and zipped up his pants. The suspect went back around to the front of the store, and a short time later, the victims saw the suspect pass by them traveling South on Burdette in a white Jeep Liberty. The suspect was driving, and there were two other men in the vehicle with him. As they drove by, they rolled down their windows and yelled some more at the victims, but did not display any more weapons. I went into the gas station and		HELM, J. E.
