LW 1803247 Burglary Of A Dwelling	On approximately 1525 on February 14th, 2018, Officers were dispatched to 924 E Parkland Ave in regards to a domestic battery in progress. Upon arriving, we met with the victim identified as Telsa Steeley. Steeley told us that her and her boyfriend, the offender, was inside of the house in the living room. Steeley said they got into an argument because the offender would not give her back her cellphone. During the argument, the offender put his hands around Steeley and squeezed her neck. Steeley told us that when this occurred, she could not breathe. We observed red marks consistent on Steeley's neck that were consistent with her story. Steeley went on to say that she punched the offender out of self defense. At this time, the offender walked into the kitchen while saying "touch me again". He came back into the living room with a gun in his hand. Steeley told us that he did not point the gun or threaten her directly with it, but instead had it down by his side in his hand. The offender then took some belongings from the house and left the property. Steeley did not know where he could be going because they both just moved into the area a week ago and are not familiar with anyone close by. We informed Steeley that she should seek to obtain a restraining order on the offender in order to protect herself. Steeley stated that she did not want to press charges on the offender.
