Titzer said that a black suv pulled out from the Olive Garden parking lot to go west, across the road that Titzer was south on, into the parking lot of Macy's. The black suv failed to yield the right of way to Titzer, hitting the driver's side passenger door and rear quarter panel. Both Titzer and the driver of the suv (OF-P.G.) pulled over. The driver of the suv (OF-P.G.) gave her information to Titzer, including plate and VIN info. When I ran the plate it came back to OF-P.G. The physical description that Titzer gave me of the OF-P.G. matched the description of P.G. in RMS. OF-P.G. told Titzer that she has no insurance and that she would pay for the damages but she didn't want the police called. When Titzer told her that she was calling the police for a report OF-P.G. left, went to Olive Garden for a few minutes, then came out with several people who all got into various vehicles and sped off. | | WILSON, M.
