Upon arriving, we met with the victim identified as Michelle Wiltsie. Wiltsie told us that she owned the home and had been gone from the house from approximately 0800 to 1700. During this time, her detached garage was broken into and a bike was stolen out of the garage. Wiltsie advised us that her garage had been broken into twice before this time. We looked around in the garage for anything else that may be missing. At this time Wiltsie discovered a pair of black sunglasses laying on the ground near where the bike was stolen. She stated that the sunglasses did not belong to her. I took the sunglasses and placed them into evidence. She told us that the man door to the garage did not lock properly and it had been open when she arrived home. We looked at the man door and confirmed that the door did not lock properly. Officer Sammet advised Wiltsie to secure the door with a piece of lumber to prevent people from being able to open the door. I provided Wiltsie with a case number and told her to follow up with EPD Records Department if she discovered anything else missing from the garage.		EAGLESON, R. C.

No victims listed. I was flagged down and asked by IO#2 for assistance at his home. He said that he has a 16 yr old daughter and that he is having problems with her running away. He says that she is generally disobedient. He said this morning he discovered that her 18 yr old boyfriend had spent the night in her room. IO#2 said that he demanded that the boyfriend leave and the victim locked the door and refused. IO#2 located me and asked me to go back to his house and remove the boyfriend. I returned to the house with IO#2 and found the daughter and the boyfriend exiting the bedroom. I advised the boyfriend that the homeowner wished for him to leave and not return to the property. I advised him that he was barred from the property and if he returned he would be charged with trespassing. He said that he understood. As the boyfriend was leaving the victim grabbed a back pack and some other items and started out the door behind him. I asked where she was going and she replied that she was leaving. The father responded "no, you dont have permission to leave." The victim ignored the father and proceeded to get into the boyfriends truck. I told her that she could not leave. The boyfriend started up the truck to leave but stopped when I advised him that he would be arrested if he tried to leave. At that point the victim refused to get out of the vehicle and return to the house. At that time I offered several options to the victim. I told her that she could go back into the house or that I would take her to Hillcrest. she refused both and said that she just wanted to leave. She stated that she wasn't getting out of the vehicle.	CLARK, S. R.

LW 1802668 Theft From Buildings < $750	I consulted with Sgt Blanton regarding options in dealing with this victim. During this time the victims mother (IO#1) arrived back at the house and related to me that the victim has been incorrigible and basically does what she wants. After spending over an hour on scene dealing with the juvenile. I called another officer to the scene. I told the victim that she had several options. I told her that she could go back inside her house and get herself together and revisit the situation later after things calmed down. She interrupted and again stated that she didn't want to go back inside she just wanted to leave. I told her that I could transport her to Hillcrest but that if she left there she could be charged with leaving and placed in YCC. I then explained to her that she was not going to be allowed to continue to sit in her boyfriends car for an undetermined amount of time and that I had another officer coming over to remove her from the car if necessary. When the additional officer arrived she became more compliant and said that she would just go back into the house. She then vacated the vehicle and returned to the house. I advised the mother (IO#1) that she needed to start filing missing reports when the victim left without permission.	Combs, Davi Dawn (W F, 44) VICTIM of Theft From Buildings < $750 (C), at 1413 S Governor St, Evansville, IN, between 00:00, 01/28/2018 and 00:00, 02/02/2018. 	On approximately 1425 on February 2nd, 2018 Officers Eagleson and Sammet were dispatched to the 1100 block of Georgia Street in reference to a domestic violence. Prior to arrival, dispatch advised us that a male had hit a female twice. Upon arrival, we spoke with the victim identified as Angela Morrow, who was sitting in the driver's seat of her vehicle on the side of the road in front of 1113 Georgia Street. Morrow stated that she was giving her boyfriend (the offender) a ride to her friend's house located on Georgia Street when they got into an argument regarding who Morrow had dated in the past. At this time the offender, who was sitting in the passenger seat of the vehicle, started hitting Morrow with his fists. Morrow attempted to protect her face by covering it, but was hit in the back of the head which resulted in Morrow's face hitting the steering wheel of the vehicle. Morrow stated that the offender left on foot traveling west on Georgia Street. We could not find the offender in the area. We had Morrow step out of the vehicle to observe her injuries. We observed Morrow and saw some dried blood on her left cheek and dried blood on the inside of her left nostril.
	We provided Morrow with a case number and gave her instructions on how to follow up with the Prosecutor's Office. We additionally notified Morrow about the shelters in the area that she could go to, and how to file protective order on the offender.

	Officer was dispatched to Big Lots at 720 S. Green River Rd for a theft. The caller reported the suspect wearing all black stole items and fled behind Devinshire Apartments. Caller also stated the suspects vehicle was stuck on the lot.
	Officer arrived on scene to find the suspect vehicle stuck on a concrete barrier backed in with no license plate on the back.
	I then made contact with the store manager, a Mr. Josh Seaver. Mr. Sever stated a clerk watched the suspect push a full cart of merchandise past all areas of payments and exit out the door. The suspect exits the store at or around 1349 with stolen product. The suspect places all of the stolen merchandise in the backseat of a silver Ford Escape and attempts to leave. A witness pulled his in front of the suspect vehicle blocking him in and the suspect tried backing up. In the process the suspect backs up onto a concrete pole causing damage to the underneath and bumper area of the suspect vehicle.
	The suspect then flees south from the vehicle toward Devinshire Apartments.
	The vehicle is inventoried and all of the stolen merchandise is recovered. Crime Scene had been called to the scene and he photographed all of the stolen property inside the vehicle and also the return of the property to Big Lots.
	The vehicle was towed and a hold was placed for the detective office. Officer placed the tow fee sheet inside the vehicle and the vehicle was tow to Tri-State Towing after inventory.
