The IO is the offenders estranged wife. The victim reports that she arrived at the IO's residence this morning to take her granddaughter to school. The victim stated that when she picked her granddaughter the offender was there with two unknown men and he was supposedly going to watch his other two small children. The offender is the children father and he lives at the residence sometimes. The victim left, took the one child to school and then returned to the house where the offender was. The victim told me that she was concerned because the offender seemed to be "on something." The victim said that she was also concerned about the two people that were there with her grandchildren being there. The victim said that she knocked on the door and one of the small children unlocked it. The victim said that she walked in and found the offender standing by the bedroom door with it partially closed. The two unknown people were in the bedroom. The victim said that she told the offender that he could leave. She said that she told him she had taken the day off and that she would watch the kids. She said that the offender became irate and told her to leave. She said that when she wouldn't leave he pushed her down on the couch and held her down. The victim said that she pushed him off and he grabbed her again and choked her. She said that the offender hit her in the mouth. I didn't see any injuries to the victims neck but the victim said that her mouth hurt and it appeared that there was possibly an injury to the inside of her upper lip. The victim said that she then left and called for police. The victim said that the two unknown men left quickly after she called police. The Victim called the IO to report what was going on. The IO is the children mother and is married to the offender. The IO took the day off from work and returned home. The offender told me that he had a couple of friends at the house when the victim entered the home. He said that he told her to leave. The offender said that the victim attacked him and he was defending himself. I asked the offender what the names of the friends so that i could corroborate his story and he told me that he only knew their first names from Facebook and didn't know where I could find them. I asked him if he was under the influence of any types of drugs and he said no. I asked if he would submit to a drug screen for CIT and he stated that he would not pass a test because he had used meth in the past 24 hrs. He agreed to leave the residence and not return. The IO stated that based on his admission she would not allow him to watch or take custody of the children.		CLARK, S. R.
