LW 1806166 Resist Law Enforcement	Society VICTIM of Resist Law Enforcement (C), at 1156 Burdette Ave, Evansville, IN, between 11:15, 03/23/2018 and 11:30, 03/23/2018. Reported: 03/23/2018. I was in the area of the 1100 block of Burdette Av looking for the suspect, Dodson. Dodson was the suspect in an auto theft, burglary, case number 18-06141. The victim in that case told me that Dodson may be driving a black Chevy Impala and was coming back to explain away his actions. I was keeping out of sight waiting for Dodson to return. I saw a black Chevy Impala north on Burdette Av and pull into the parking lot. I was in full uniform and marked unit 1701 and started to approach where the black Chevy Impala was sitting. The black Impala pulled away at a high rate of speed going south on Burdette, then back north through the apartment complex parking lot. The black Impala came back out onto Burdette Av. I had my emergency lights and siren activated. The black Impala turned west onto Washington Av and continued to accelerate. I notified dispatch I was in pursuit. I pursued the black Impala west on Washington Av. The black Impala was smoking due to two flat front tires and came to a stop at Marshall Av where it hit the curb. The driver of the Impala, Dodson, got out of his vehicle and fled on foot. I then pursued Dodson on foot for approximately two blocks where he came to a six foot privacy fence. Dodson was looking around for an avenue of escape. I had my CEW out while I was chasing Dodson on foot. Dodson was still looking around when I deployed my CEW. Officer's White and Jolly arrived to assist. Dodson was taken into custody. Dodson complained of pain to his finger, thinking it may be broken. Dodson was taken to Deaconess for his suspected injury and jail clearance. Dodson was then taken to EPD headquarters to be questioned by detectives in case number 18-06141. Dodson was then taken to jail.		REED, S. E.

LW 1806131 Incident Rpt Misc	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 1199 N Third Ave/w Louisiana St, Evansville, IN, on 03/23/2018, 00:44. Reported: 03/23/2018. No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to the above listed address in reference to a general complaint regarding the reporting parties vehicle. Upon arrival, Officers spoke with Kabrisha Robertson who claimed her Chevrolet Caprice was parked behind the new Walmart on First Avenue in a neighborhood near the Grandview Towers apartments. When she went to check on the vehicle, it was gone. Later on in the night, her boyfriend, (an Uber driver), was dropping people off on Louisiana Street when he saw her vehicle parked in front of 1202 N Third Avenue. Robertson checked the vehicle and confirmed it was hers and then called dispatch. Officers made contact with the resident of 1202 N Third who said that the vehicle allegedly belonged to her nephew, Tevin Woodruff. The resident said that the vehicle had been sitting in front of her home for two to three weeks as Tevin was working on getting it fixed. Officers ran a check through the BMV and the vehicle came back registered to Kabrisha Robertson. Robertson had a paper copy of the registration with VIN number that matched the VIN on the inside of the drivers door. Robertson also had the hard license plate that matched the registration. Robertson called for Tristate towing, in which they arrived and towed the vehicle to her boyfriends fathers house. Shortly after the vehicle was towed from the scene, dispatch advised officers that Tevin Woodruff would like to speak with an officer via phone. Woodruff was called and he advised that he had bought the car from Robertson and had a title to the vehicle. Officers arrived at Woodruff's address at 731 E Delaware. Woodruff said that he had bought the vehicle from Robertson several weeks back. The vehicle was parked near Grandview apartments due to it having mechanical difficulties and was later tagged by the city as an abandoned vehicle. The vehicle was later towed to Wolf's Auto Auction. Woodruff's fiance was able to show proof of ownership to Wolf's Auto to take possession of the vehicle from Wolf's. At this time, Woodruff was unable to locate the title to the vehicle showing his or his Fiance's ownership. Woodruff said that the vehicle was titled in his Fiance's name and due to the time of night he was unable to contact her to locate the title.		HALLMARK, B. G.
