An officer was dispatched to 2511 N Kentucky Ave in reference to a harassment report. Upon arrival, the victim stated he shares two kids with the suspect. The victim stated everything has been civil with the suspect up till January 2018. The victim stated the suspect recently assaulted him and the suspect told police that the victim assaulted the suspect. The victim stated the suspect has been calling him making threats since that incident. The victim stated the phone calls started today around 1300 hours. The victim stated the suspect called saying the suspects boyfriend was going to beat up the victim. The victim stated the suspect also told him that the victims mother was going to get beat up by the suspect again. The victim stated he told the suspect to stop calling him to argue and make threats. The victim stated the suspect continued to call but the victim did not answer. The victim stated he is on house arrest and was not wanting trouble but wanted to proceed through the matter the right way.

Officers were dispatched to Division and Garvin in reference a hit and run that just took place. The victim was driving west on Division St. approaching the intersection of Garvin St. She noticed a white van not stopping for the red light for northbound traffic. The victim tried to slow down but could not in time and struck the suspect vehicle on the rear passenger side tire. The van lost control and ended up in the field on the NW corner of the intersection. The victim vehicle also ended up in the same field on the NW corner. The victim stated that the suspect jumped out of his vehicle and ran North on Garvin turning on a side street. The suspect did not exchange information nor check for injuries. Witnesses who saw the accident were driving West on division behind the victim.

Witnesses saw a white van disregard the red light on N Garvin when the victim who had the green signal collided with the van. The witnesses stopped to check for injuries when they saw a white male jump out of the driver's seat of the van and run North on Garvin. The witnesses quickly got in their vehicle and pursued the male on to East Illinois St. Witness 1 stated that she located the male in a field near the 600 block of East Illinois St. She jumped from the driver's seat and tackled the male. She asked why he was running and the suspect stated that he had drugs in the vehicle. Witness 2 got out of the passenger seat of the vehicle and held the suspect down as witness 1 went back to check for injuries. At this time, witness 2 saw a mid 2000's dark green trailblazer drive up to the scene in an alley North of Illinois St.

The driver of the Trail Blazer, a white male with a beard, stated that he was the suspect's cousin and told the suspect to get in. The male stated he was going to take the cousin back to the accident scene. Witness 2 said that he lost control of the suspect who got in the vehicle which left North on Sherman. The victim was given a case number for her insurance. There was minor damage to the van on the passenger side rear fender. There was major front end damage to the victim's vehicle. Both vehicles were towed.
