LW 1807558 Criminal Recklessness [bm]	one night, but she hasn't seen him since. On today's date, she was switching buses at the Lawndale bus stop, and the suspect got off one bus and then got on hers. He talked with her all the way to her stop. He asked if he could come over, and even though she didn't really want him to, she said he could. They went into her apartment, and that's when the victim said the suspect tried to get her to have sex with him. She told him she didn't want to, and said she was going to be leaving again soon to meet her mother. At one point, she was in the bathroom when the suspect came in, grabbed her by the throat and pushed her back against the toilet. The victim said she couldn't breathe when the suspect had her by the throat. When he finally let go, she told him she was going to call the police. She pulled her phone out, but that's when the suspect took it out of her hand and threw it under the couch. The victim ran out of the apartment and said she tried knocking on the neighbor apartment's door, but the suspect grabbed her and pulled her down the hallway. Then he ran out of the apartment building. The victim quickly ran back in her apartment, retrieved her phone from under the couch and called 911. I didn't see any visible injuries to the victim, but she stated she did wish to press charges.	Richardson, Trishada Marie (W F, 38) VICTIM of Criminal Recklessness [bm] (C), at 3014 Hartmetz Ave, Evansville, IN, between 19:00, 04/10/2018 and 19:02, 04/10/2018. LW 1807563 Found Property	Officers were called for a shots fired run at 3014 Hartmetz. Dispatch advised that a male was shooting at his wife and another male. When we arrived we talked to both of them and found that he was shooting a pellet gun. They said he got out of the car and just started shooting at the male and then took off in his car real fast. The male said he had seen the gun before and knew it was a pellet gun. He said the pellets were close to him but all of them hit the fence. He said the suspect got, tried to slash her tires, then got back in the car. After that, he started to drive away and then got out and started shooting. He said the male shot 8-10 times. There was no visible damage to the fence and no rounds, casings, or pellets were located. The victims were given a case number. The male was located and had narcotics on his person and was taken to jail.	Found Property (C), at 600 Mary St, Evansville, IN, on 04/10/2018, 19:49. Reported: 04/10/2018. No victims listed. Reported: 04/11/2018. On 04/11/2018, officers were dispatched to the 1300 block of E. Indiana St. in reference to a domestic violence in progress. The RP stated that her father had just "beat her up." When officers arrived, we spoke to both parties. The father stated that his daughter was not home all night and left her son at the home. He reported that all three live at this residence together. He stated that he began moving her belongings outside to the front porch due to her not coming home. When the daughter returned home, she became angry and an argument began. He stated that the argument was only verbal and never became physical. The daughter reported that her father moved all of her belongings to the front porch and she came indoors and began arguing. She stated that her father pushed her down and slammed her head into the concrete floor 3-4 times. She reported that this occurred in front of her 4-year-old son. The daughter had no visible injuries. Officers offered to contact an ambulance for the daughter but she refused any medical treatment. At this time, a report was taken and a case number was given to the daughter. Officers further asked the daughter if she wanted to go to a shelter for the night but she refused. The daughter was also given a pamphlet with resources for domestic violence victims. Both parties were separated and a third party came to the home to monitor the situation.		BARNES, D. M.
