	being placed on the cot. In the left front pants pocket of his blue jeans I could feel a hard tubular object. I reached into his pocket and located a white piece of paper (like napkin paper). Inside was a clear glass pipe with both ends broken, brillo pad in one end and burn marks on the end with the brillo pad. Also located in his right front pants pocket was some more brillo pad. I followed AMR to Deaconess hospital. The witness was one of the crew members with AMR. He told me upon arriving at the hospital that IJ had reached down his pants and pulled something out and placed it in the vomit bag that was provided him. IJ was placed in room 4 of the ER. The witness took the vomit bag from IJ. IJ did not want to give the bag to the witness. After a hard tug he got the bag away from IJ and handed it to me. Inside the bag was some more white paper wadded up. Inside the paper I located some clear cellophane paper. Inside the cellophane paper was a brown wax substance. Det. Knight and Det. Seibert with JTF responded to the hospital. The substance did not field test for heroin or THC. IJ was issued a citation for possession of a look a like and possession of paraphernalia. IJ has prior conviction for paraphernalia under cause number 82D02-1008-FD-00862.
