LW 1811038 Resist Law Enforcement [am]	Society VICTIM of Resist Law Enforcement [am] (C), at 1410 E Missouri St, Evansville, IN, on 05/23/2018, 11:50. Reported: 05/23/2018. I, Officer White, was sent to 1410 E. Missouri St for a back door alarm. I went to the address and parked. I started to walk to the address and saw the defendant standing next to / by the open front passenger door of a white van (which was parked in the driveway). Initially he did not see me as I approached. As I neared where the offender was standing he looked may way, had a surprised look on his face, and immediately turned and ran north to the alley (then east). I followed on foot and lost sight of him in the trailer park north of the alley. I put out a description of the subject over the air. Several units responded to the area and he was spotted trying to cross HWY 41. The defendant was at this residence on a prior run in which I was dispatched. At that time he was told by the resident (in my presence) that she did not want him back to her home. The defendant later stated (after being apprehended) that he ran because he was due in court this morning for a battery case involving the woman at 1410 E. Missouri. He believed he had a warrant, which in fact was issued this morning for his failure to appear. See affidavit for further detail.		WHITE, T. E.
