[bm]	On 06/21/2018 at approximately 1658 hours, I, Officer R. Smith was dispatched to 2301 Saint George Rd. in reference to an assault in progress. Upon arrival, I spoke with the victim. The victim stated that the offender confronted her about knowing a male subject. The victim stated that she advised the offender that she knew of the male subject, but did not know him very well. The victim stated that her and the offender conversed for a short moment while they were working, and everything seemed to be fine. The victim stated that she later went to the restroom, and when she came out, the offender began to start a verbal altercation between the two. The victim stated that the offender then began to attack her. The victim stated that the offender struck her in the face several times and pulled her hair. The victim had welt on the right side of her face, just along the right side of her nose. The victim stated that she did know the offender personally prior to this incident. The victim refused AMR. I then spoke with the offender, who stated that the victim had inboxed her on Facebook. The offender stated that she had issues with the victim for approximately 2 months, which is also the length of time that she has been back to Evansville from living in Tennessee. The offender stated that she talked with the victim's brother, who is also an employee of the above address, and was advised by him that any differences between the victim and the offender should be resolved. The offender stated that she believed that matters were resolved, until she heard from another employee that the victim was calling some of her friends to come and attack the offender. The offender stated that she confronted the victim about the issue, which led to them being engaged in a physical altercation. The offender had a welt on the right side of her face, but is unsure how it got there. The offender stated that she did not have the welt prior to this incident. The offender stated that she did not want to file charges in regards to this incident.
