		Officers spoke to the witness over the phone. The witness stated that at approximately 1720 she witnessed an older white male driving a gray Ford F150 back into the left rear of the victim's parked vehicle. The witness stated that the right rear of the suspect vehicle made contact with the victim's vehicle. The witness stated that she confronted the male that he had just backed into another vehicle, and the male said "that's what bumpers are for" and then left the scene. Officers went to the address of the registered owner of the plate provided by the victim for the suspect vehicle. The vehicle wasn't parked outside and no one answered the door. The two garage doors of the residence were open approximately one foot, and officers observed that no vehicles were in the garage either. The male registered owner had no phone number listed in RMS, and the two phone numbers for the female registered owner in RMS went straight to voicemail. On 07/17/2018 at approximately 1844 hours, I, Officer R. Smith was dispatched to the intersection of S. Boeke Rd. and Sweetser Ave. in reference to a hit and run with injury. Upon arrival, I spoke with the victim. The victim stated that he was traveling south bound on Boeke Rd. The victim stated that as he approached the above intersection, a gray Dodge Charger disregarded a stop on Sweetser Ave., as it was traveling west bound. The victim stated that the suspect vehicle struck his vehicle, and was stopped for a short moment. The victim stated that after the suspect vehicle was stopped for a moment, it fled south on Boeke Rd. The victim's vehicle suffered left front damage and left rear damage. The victim complained of pain on the left side of his body, his neck, and back. The victim was transported to the hospital for immediate medical attention by AMR 0347. I then spoke with IO1, who stated that a citizen gave her a ride to attempt to locate the suspect vehicle. IO1 stated that she was able to locate the suspect vehicle, because it had leaked fluids as it fled from the scene. IO1 located the suspect vehicle at Pollack Apartments. Officer W. Arbaugh sat with the suspect vehicle until Tri-State Towing arrived to Pollack Apartments. The suspect vehicle suffered heavy front end damage and right rear damage. The suspect vehicle was towed to 1501 N. Evans Ave., and held there for being involved in a hit and run accident.
