| Marijuana, Hash Oil, Hashish, Salvia, Synthetic | 14:20. Reported: 07/18/2018. On today's date I observed a female walk to the gas station at 41/Virginia and meet for a few seconds with a maroon vehicle that had pulled up to the gas pumps. The occupants of the maroon vehicle never exited the vehicle. After the parties met, they both left in different directions. I approached the female as she was walking north on Fares from Virginia. I showed her my badge and asked her if I could speak with her. She immediately dropped her right hand towards her right pocket. I asked her not to reach into her pocket. I asked the female, who was identified as Destinee Douglas, if I could pat her down for weapons. She consented. During an exterior pat down, In her right front pocket I felt what I immediately recognized as a controlled substance. I recovered a clear plastic baggy with green leafy substance from her right pocket. Post Miranda, Douglas admitted to me that she just purchased the suspected marijuana from the maroon vehicle she met with at the gas station for $10. Douglas was cited and released. The substance later field tested positive for THC and had a field weight of 2.6 grams. |   |                |

The victim said that she tried to call police because the offender wouldn't let her leave. The victim said that she is in the process of trying to end the relationship and that her husband doesn't want her to have a job. She says that he sabotages her attempts to get or keep a job. On the date of the report she said that the police were summoned because she was trying to leave and the offender was blocking her way out the door with his body. She said that when she tried to go around him he grabbed her by the neck and pushed her back. I didn't observe any injuries to her neck. She stated that when he made contact with her she hit him in response. She said that he took her phone from her when she said that she was calling the police. The physical contact took place in the presence of the victims three children (listed IO's). The victim said that a maintenance worker at the apt complex called the police when he observed the two outside arguing at their vehicle. The victim said that the offender pushed her out of the car while she was getting in the car to leave for work. The offender was still there when I arrived. He stated that there was an argument over the victim not doing the dirty dishes before she left for work. He said that he was standing in front of her at one point but that he was not preventing her from leaving. The offender said that the victim hit him on the left side of his face without provocation and that his three children witnessed it and could corroborate his account of the events. The offender had no visible indication of an injury. The offender had possession of the victims cell phone. When i inquired about the phone he stated that he pays for the phone. He said that he did have the phone. He agreed to return the phone to the victim. The victim was reluctant to pursue charges if it was going to result in the offender going to jail immediately.
