Central Dispatch advised the caller stated a male was laying in the middle of the street in front 1901 Old Business 41. Sgt. M. Saltzman made contact with suspect who was laying in the road. I arrived and observed an odd bulge in the suspect's right pocket. The 1900 block of Old Business 41 is a high crime area known for violent crimes, illicit narcotics sales, and illicit narcotics use. Due to the fact that the male had an unidentified bulge in his pants, and the history of the area the stop was conducted in, I conducted over the clothes pat down of the suspect. As I ran my hand across the suspect right pants' pocket I felt what through my training and experience I believed to be pipe used to introduce (smoke) narcotics into the body. I placed the suspect in handcuffs. I then reached into the suspect's pocket and retrieved a glass pipe with Burt residue. The pipe also had a white crystalline residue. The residue later field tested positive for methamphetamine. The suspect was cited and released. Enter into evidence: 1 glass pipe with Burt residue and a white crystalline residue. Reported: 07/20/2018. I was dispatched to 990 S Green River road in regards to a criminal mischief report. Upon arriving, I met with Hacienda's floor manager. The manager informed me that on 07/19/2018 at approximately 1557, a man (offender) came into the restaurant looking for a waitress that works there. The waitress happens to be the offender's ex-girlfriend, and he was there in order to settle an issue regarding disconnecting an iPhone from a MacBook computer. The manager approached the offender and told him to have a seat. As the offender took a seat, he exclaimed that he needed to see the waitress. The manager made contact with the waitress in order to find out what was going on. At this time, an employee informed the manager that the man who was sitting down has gotten angry. The manager walked back to where the offender was sitting, and found him pacing extremely fast back and forth. The waitress walks out to take care of one of her tables, and the offender spots the waitress. As the waitress is taking care of her guests, the offender walks over to the waitress and begins cussing very loudly, which disrupted several guests in the restaurant. The manager called the police and informed the offender to leave. As the offender is leaving, he throws a dining table across the floor, which ends up destroying it. The offender then leaves the restaurant without further incident. I provided the manager with a case number and informed her how to follow up with the prosecutor if she wanted to press charges.	EAGLESON, R.
