As I stood at the door and spoke with him I was unable to detect the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from him or the odor of marijuana coming from his person or the apartment. I asked Der`rik if I could check on his daughter to make sure she was ok and he agreed to get her for me. As Der`rik went to get his daughter I walked over and spoke with Sarah, who was at her car in the parking lot. Sarah advised me that the only reason she had come over to the address was because she had seen the videos posted of the party. She was concerned for her daughter because she attempted to call Der`rik six times and he did not answer his phone. While talking Der`rik came out with their daughter and Sarah was able to see that she was fine. While outside together the two began to discuss the situation and I had the child go back inside. While talking Sarah brought up the court order I asked Der`rik if it was stated that he was not suppose to drink. Der`rik stated this was correct and did admit to me that he had a couple of drinks. He stated that one of his friends was having a birthday and that another was going out of town so they decided to have a get together at his place since he had his daughter this weekend. Der`rik admitted that he was wrong for having the couple of drinks but pleaded with Sarah to let their		ELFREICH, C. A.

Sarah advised that she would feel more comfortable if their daughter came home with her for the night and that Der`rik could have her back in the morning. Sarah advised me she was not concerned that Der`rik had a couple of drinks, she was afraid that the people who were over earlier in the night for the party would come back and she did not feel this was the proper environment for a child. Der`rik stated that his friends had already left and that they were not coming back. I explained to Sarah that I did not feel that the child was in any danger. Der`rik was not in any state of intoxication and that the get together was already over. I also explained to Der`rik that if the court orders him not do something around his child then he needs to abide by those orders. After a long discussion it was determined that the child would go home with Sarah and that Der`rik would pick her back up in the morning. While speaking with both parents I determined that both of them have a great love and concern for their daughter. Both of them were able to understand each others concerns and a solution was come up with. Der`rik was upset because he only gets to see his daughter every other weekend and stated that he would really like to spend more time with her. He stated that he has spoke with Sarah about this and hopes that he can get this accomplished.		PROCTOR, J. L.
