LW 1819494	Family/custody Dispute	Family/custody Dispute (C), at 8283 E Walnut St, Evansville, IN, between 23:15, 09/05/2018 and 23:27, 09/05/2018. Reported: 09/06/2018. No victims listed. I was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a family dispute. On scene I spoke with the involved parties who were disputing over their 4 year old child. I spoke with Skander who stated he has been out of the country and recently returned to see his son. Skander stated his ex-wife, Anne, had recently moved to Indiana from Illinois and brought their son with her. Skander did not approve of this move since they have been disputing over custody in Chicago. Skander came to Evansville several days ago to spend time with his son, which is what he was doing this evening. While asleep in their hotel room Skander stated his son woke up in great pain, screaming, and crying because his knee was hurting. Skander stated he called Anne to tell her that he was going to call an ambulance to take him to the hospital to get it looked. Anne stated she would just bring some Motrin over for their son but Skander felt like he needed to be looked at and called for an ambulance. Skander stated after he called for the ambulance his son stopped crying and said he didn't want to go to the hospital. An ambulance did show up and looked at the child. They advised me that the child seemed to be fine at that time. Skander insisted that the child go to the emergency room but stated Anne told the ambulance crew that she had sole custody and that he was not going to go. Skander advised me that he was concerned because this is the third time in four	ELFREICH, C. A.

LW 1819496	Theft All Other < $750	days that his son had complained about it. Skander advised me while in Chicago his son was seen for this issue by a pediatrician but that they did not want to take X-rays because of his age. He told me that the doctor was going to keep an eye on it but that if it continued then his son would need to be seen again. Anne confirmed that the child was seen for this reason but stated they were not told they needed to come back. Anne stated the child is having growing pains and that he has night terrors and often wakes up screaming. Anne did state that she was going to take the child to a doctor but did not want to go to the emergency room due to the cost. Anne does not currently have a pediatrician for the child because she recently moved to the area. She did state that her sister has a pediatrician and that she was going to get her son in to see him about this issue. The child did appear to be fine while I spoke with both his parents. The child decided to go back home with his mother for the night and Skander was alright with this. Both parties advised me that they have spent an extensive amount of time in the court system in Illinois and that the move to Indiana has only complicated the custodial dispute. Ruschmeier, Marisa Ann (W F, 22) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 2400 E Riverside Dr, Evansville, IN, between 00:40, 09/06/2018 and 00:45, 09/06/2018.
