Officers were dispatched to Deaconess ER in reference to a complaint. When we arrived and spoke with the victim she very unsure of what exactly had happened other than she told us she had been hit by a unknown subject. The victim did not want anyone to get in trouble, and her story was all over the place. At one time she started talking to a person that was not in the room. The victim did have a bruise on her right calf but that was about the extent of her injuries, other than the hospital had a splint on her right hand and forearm but she never told us why or how that injury had happened.
