LW 1825428 Incident Rpt Misc	Incident Rpt Misc (C), at 401 N Burkhardt Rd, Evansville, IN, between 15:59, 11/20/2018 and 16:07, 11/20/2018. Reported: 11/20/2018. No victims listed. On 11/20/2018 at approximately 1559 hours, I, Officer R. Smith was dispatched to 310 N. Burkhardt Rd. in reference to a theft in progress. Upon arrival I spoke with the reporter. The reporter stated that he observed IO1 exit the business with a generator, passing all points of sales, without paying for the generator. I then made contact with IO1, placed him in handcuffs, and read him his Miranda warning. IO1 stated that he understood his rights. IO1 stated that he was returning an older generator that he had purchased from the above business. IO1 stated that while he was attempting to return the old generator, according to IO1, IO2 advised him that he needed to take the old generator to the automotive section of the store due to the old generator emanating a strong odor of gasoline. IO1 stated that IO2 also advised him to walk the generator to automotive on the outside of the business. IO1 stated that he exited the business with both generators in a shopping cart to the front parking lot, where his vehicle was located. IO1 stated that when he got to his vehicle, a citizen offered to help him load up the generator into his vehicle, due to the fact that it was too heavy for IO1 to carry or lift on his own. IO1 then stated that he drove around to automotive because it was too cold for him to be walking that far in the cold and the newer generator was too heavy to carry. IO made to the automotive department and carried in the old generator inside, while the newer generator remained in the vehicle. IO1 stated that he was going to advise the sales associate that he had another generator in his vehicle that he		SMITH, R. A.

	wanted to purchase. IO1 stated that before he could even mention the generator, I encountered him. The reporter stated that he made contact with IO2 to confirm IO1`s accounts of the incident. According to the reporter, IO2 advised him that she did advise IO1 to walk around to TLE (Automotive Department) with the generator that had gas in it. The reporter stated that he reviewed surveillance footage, and observed that an employee of the business did assist IO1 in placing the generator into a shopping cart, and that he did in fact make contact with IO2 at the customer service desk. IO1 insisted that the generator was too heavy for him to carry or lift due to prior shoulder injuries. The reporter made contact with his superior and gave him the details of this particular incident. The reporter advised IO1 and I that the business would not be filing any charges against IO1. IO1 was very cooperative and patient when he was dealing with law enforcement and staff in regards to this incident. IO1 stated that he was going to pay for the new generator with the refund of the old generator and cash that he had on his person.
