LW 1826275	Andrews, Lashaun (B F, 20) VICTIM of Battery - Domestic - Presence Of Child <16 (C), at 534 S Linwood Ave, Evansville, IN, between 14:07, 12/02/2018 and 14:10, 12/02/2018. Reported: 12/02/2018. Officers were dispatched to a family dispute in the 500-blk of S Linwood Ave after a mother and daughter, both adults, each called 911 stating that she had been physically assaulted by the other. Officers arrived and met with the mother and the adult daughter, who were both screaming at each other inside the residence as officers approached the front door. The mother`s boyfriend and other daughter (a juvenile) left the scene prior to officers arrival. The adult daughter recently came here from Minnesota, and has been staying here for a few weeks. The mother told officers that her daughter hit her in the face and scratched her fingers after an argument after church, and that she (the mother) defended herself. The mother also stated that her boyfriend had to pull her daughter off of her. The mother stated that she then called the police. The mother told officers that she just wanted her daughter to leave. The daughter told officers that she and her mother got into a verbal argument after church, and that her mother and her mother`s boyfriend physically assaulted her. The daughter stated that her mom`s boyfriend threw her on the ground, and that her mom hit her in the face. The daughter stated that this occurred in front of her fifteen year old sister. The daughter then called 911 at approximately the same time her mother did. Neither the mother or daughter had visible injuries. The mother was given a case number. Officers stood by while the adult daughter gathered her belongings, and then transported her to her local church at her request. While waiting in the church parking lot, officers located and spoke to the juvenile daughter that had left the scene. The juvenile daughter told officers that after they had went to church, her mother and sister got into a verbal argument over new furniture. The juvenile daughter stated that her mom then went to the store and her sister locked herself in her room. The juvenile daughter stated that her sister and her mother`s boyfriend then got into an argument, and she witnessed her mother`s boyfriend hit her sister in the upstairs bedroom. The juvenile daughter told officers that while her sister and mom`s boyfriend were fighting, her mom then came		WOLF, D. C.

No victims listed. Payton A. Sharpe drove to EPD HQ and requested a report for damage to his vehicle. On today`s date Sharpe said he witnessed the wind blow two (2) shopping carts across the parking lot of 607 E. Diamond Ave. Sharpe said his vehicle had damage and he believes the shopping carts struck the driver`s side door of his green 2017 Honda Civic. Sharpe said nobody purposely pushed the carts into his vehicle and acknowledged this was not a vehicle crash or a crime. I, SGT. Arbaugh observed two dents to the operators door while the Honda Civic was parked in front of EPD HQ on a somewhat windy day. Sharpe was told this was a civil matter and that a police report would be of no need or gain to him. Sharpe adamantly requested a report anyway. A report was taken based on what Sharpe reported. There are no witnesses other than Sharpe. There was no investigation by the police department at 607 E. Diamond Ave. There is nothing criminal to investigate concerning this civil matter. The case is suspended with no follow up. Sharpe said he was contacting the business and his insurance company as he was upset about the alleged damages. Sharpe was given a case number and acknowledged that he does not need to contact the police department again concerning this civil matter. [12/02/2018 16:39, WARBAUGH]		ARBAUGH, W. R.

Reported: 12/02/2018. On 12-02-2018 at 6:03 p.m. Officers responded to 2829 Oakley Street reference a burglary report. Upon arrival, contact was made with the reporting party who advised the following: Her ex boyfriend is a recovering addict and had been staying with her for the past two months. After a relapse last week, she told him that he had to move out of the house. The suspect took all of his belongings other than a few large items and was told not to return. The suspect's father was made aware of this and advised her that he would keep him away from the house. The suspect is not on the lease or any utility bills. After the suspect moved out, she had the locks to her house changed. Today over the course of a few hours, she received several incoherent text messages from the suspect. This began around 2:30 p.m. Several of them were clear and threatening in nature, advising that she was dead and that the suspect was "strapped." One of the messages also mentioned that her front door had been kicked in. She had a friend go by the house and check on it who found it undisturbed around 4:30 p.m. The suspect continued to send her messages of a similar nature. She returned home around 6:00 p.m. and found that the front door had been kicked in and the house had been ransacked with several items being destroyed. There was an urn with her father's ashes in it that was missing from the house. She was explained the process of getting a protective order. I told her about resources available to her and she chose to go stay with a friend. Detective was notified and verified the charges. Crime Scene responded to the scene and photographed the damage. The male was located and taken to VCCC after talking to a detective.		CLAYTON, H. P.
