Reported: 01/18/2019. Police were dispatched to 1555 Vann Ave. in reference to a domestic violence report. On scene, I spoke with the victim. She said she has been dating the suspect for about a year, and he has been living with her at this address. The victim's adult niece and the victim's juvenile son and daughter also live at the address. The victim stated she was in the bedroom with the suspect, when he started looking through her phone. He saw some text messages that got him upset, so he started asking the victim questions in an aggressive manner. The victim took her phone back, and the suspect told her to give it back to him. When she refused, he hit her in the face with his closed right fist. He asked for the phone again after striking the victim, but she still didn't give it to him. The suspect hit the victim in the face again, the same way he did before. At that point, she gave him the phone as she got up off the bed. The victim told the suspect to leave the house. As he was exiting the bedroom, he kicked the victim's TV, breaking the screen. As the suspect was leaving the bedroom, the victim's 14 year old son, who heard the altercation from the next room over, was coming in to check on the his mother. The victim's niece, who was the one who called 911, also heard the altercation and met the suspect at the front door to the house. He pushed past her, and started walking South on Vann. The victim tried following the suspect while her niece called the police, but it wasn't long until the suspect was picked up by someone in a vehicle.		HELM, J. E.
