LW 1901777	Custody Dispute	Custody Dispute (C), at 1535 Joyce Ave, Evansville, IN, between 14:15, 01/25/2019 and 15:15, 01/25/2019. Reported: 01/25/2019. No victims listed. Custody dispute over court ordered weekend visitaion. I was flagged down in the parking lot of McGary Middle School on Friday 01/25/19 at approximately 1425 hours by Jamie Lee Knott. Jamie appeared to be distraught and explained that he was supposed to have picked up his son per arrangements set forth in a recent custody/visitation hearing. Jamie held a court order in his hand that clearly indicated that he was to have picked up his children and had visitation rights for the weekend beginning with school pick up on 01/25/19. Jamie explained that the children`s mother, Stephanie A. Wilson, understood the arrangements but disregarded the court order and picked their son up early from school in order to prevent Jamie from having him. Jamie believed that Stephanie was on her way to Fairlawn School to pick up their other three children as well. I contacted Stephanie on her cell phone and asked if she had picked up her son from McGary and if she was at Fairlawn or had plans to go there in order to pick up her other three children. She simply replied that she did have one of her sons and was planning on picking up the others, but was not yet at the school. I asked Stephanie if she understood that there was a court order in place indicating that Jamie was to be the parent picking up the children for his weekend visit and she replied that she knew about the order. I then asked her if she would meet me and Jamie at Fairlawn to allow him to take custody of their son in addition to the other children. Stephanie replied that she was not going to allow Jamie to have his oldest son, but he could pick up the other children. I explained to Stephanie that in refusing to allow Jamie to have his son, she would be in violation of the court order and could be held in contempt. Stephanie replied that she did not care. Stephanie did not show up at Fairlawn and refused to answer any further calls.	CARLILE, A. T.

LW 1901787 Trespass [am]	United Caring Shelter VICTIM of Trespass [am] (C), at 324 Nw Sixth St, Evansville, IN, between 16:16, 01/25/2019 and 16:20, 01/25/2019. Reported: 01/25/2019.  I, Officer Gibson, was dispatched to the listed address in reference to a disorderly conduct. Upon arrival Sgt Gray already had the offender, Michael Whiteside, in custody.  Sgt Gray advised me that he saw Whiteside on the United Caring Shelter property. Sgt Gray advised me that Whiteside was not forming his sentences very well. I asked Whiteside what was going on today and he could not answer. Sgt Gray and myself took Whiteside to my car so we could sit him down. After getting Whiteside in my patrol vehicle and seatbelted in, I went inside to speak to an employee of the United Caring Shelter, WI-1.  WI-1 stated that Whiteside was outside banging on the tables. WI-1 stated that at one point Whiteside also threw a chair. WI-1 stated that no one was hurt and there was no damage to any property. WI-1 advised he did not need a report for the property that was thrown. I advised WI-1 since Whiteside was barred from the property on 01/12/19 for 2 years by Officer Kingston, that I would be taking him to jail for trespass. I gave WI-1 a case number.  Whiteside was transported the VCCC and charged under the listed charge.		GIBSON, S. E.

I was dispatched to 624 Madison Avenue in reference to a dispute. When I arrived I spoke to Piper Blackard and David Keeling. The owner of the residence, Denise Bates, was not on scene but she is the sister to Keeling and adoptive parent of Blackard. Bates was being moved from the hospital to an assisted living facility. Keeling had been appointed the Power of Attorney of Bates' affairs and was at the residence to move property out of the house at Bates' request. Blackard was also at the residence to move property out of the house for her own use. There began a verbal argument between Blackard and Keeling over what property Blackard was removing from the residence. I arrived on scene and Blackard was complaining about pain to her left knee where she said that Keeling pushed her the ground. Keeling denied pushing Blackard but stated that he did restrict her walking out of the front door with disputed property by moving his body in front of the door. Keeling stated that Blackard ran into him while she was carrying a box and she lost her balance and fell. I spoke to Bates by telephone. She stated that she was being released from the hospital on this date and would return to the residence. It was agreed by all parties that the separation of property would be determined when Bates returned home.		BREIVOGEL, J. M.
