Reported: 02/12/2019. On 02/21/2019, at approximately 16:10 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at 114 E Tennessee Street in reference to the caller wanting to get his dog. Officers arrived on scene and spoke with the caller, identified as the victim. He stated he and his wife, identified as an involved other, purchased a white colored male bulldog named "Harley" from a friend and former roommate, identified as an involved other, last week for $100. The seller's boyfriend, identified as the offender, stayed at the residence with the victim and his wife. However, he had not paid any portion of the bills and they had an argument yesterday, 02/11/2019. That evening, the offender left for a period of time and decided he was going to move out. He returned, entered the back door of the residence and took the dogs, including "Harley". There was another white bulldog, but she was a female and did belong to the seller and the offender.		THIRY, K. D.
