LW 1903695 Fc Fraud	Stoltmann, Theresa Dawn (W F, 58) VICTIM of Fc Fraud (C), at 4715 Covert Ave, Evansville, IN, between 08:00, 02/12/2019 and 08:00, 02/15/2019. Reported: 02/21/2019.  VI called records to report fraud. The VI's husband passed away 02/12/2019. The deceased was on disability and his monthly monies were sent to a Direct Express Card. Due to past money managements problems the IO, S.S whom is a worker for the Aurora Group Evansville IN , 101 Mary St Evansville IN was the keeper of the card and helped manage his funds. The VI was the wife of the deceased; they lived apart due to domestic issues; however, she was very devoted to him. After the passing, the deceased's daughter and ex-wife went to the home of the deceased and cleaned it out. According to the VI and the IO she was very distraught and not in the right mind set. The OF's took many items that did not belong to them and should have went to the VI. After a period of calm, the VI asked the two offenders to return the items. This has not been done. The IO, S.S advised the Vi that there was monies left on the deceased Direct Express Card and those funds would be hers. The two women attempted to make a rent payment and the funds were not available. Upon further investigation, the card itself had been closed and another card opened. The remaining monies, approximately $300.00 were transferred to the new card. It is believed that the ex-wife and the daughter closed this account and opened the new account since they had access to the deceased social security card and other imperative information. The exacts of who closed the card and requested a new one will not be given to the VI due to violation terms and agreements. They will however provide if a detective is assigned to this incident. The suspects are the ex-wife and the daughter.		WAMBACH, S. D.

Reported: 02/21/2019.  Officer was dispatched to 5480 E Indiana St. (Ross Dress for Less) regarding a theft that had occurred a few days ago. Officer arrived and met with loss prevention, S. Zuponeck, who stated he was alerted about a shoplifting that had occurred on 02/17. S. Zuponeck stated he looked through surveillance and realized the male and female offenders, both wearing dark clothing and hats, 20-30 years of age, enter the business with a shopping cart from Hobby Lobby at 1057hrs. At that time, a clerk advised them they had to take the cart outside. While inside of the business, S. Zuponeck, observed through surveillance both offenders concealing merchandise. Both offenders were seen layering items on themselves. The male offender had went into the changing room near the front of the business and defecated smearing it on the walls. The male offender came out and stated someone had made a mess in the room in a possible attempt to distract the employees. Both offenders were confronted by an employee about the items concealed, and one of the offenders denied taking items. Both offenders exited the business at about 1543 hrs setting off the front door alarms. S. Zuponeck believes		BOND, T. J.

LW 1903723	Theft- Shoplifting &lt; $750	Officers arrived on scene and spoke with a male, identified as the victim. He stated around 14:30 hours, he and his girlfriend, identified as the offender, were traveling west on the Lloyd Expressway with their 3-year-old son in the backseat of the vehicle. The victim and suspect are a couple, share expenses and routinely stay with each other unless they are arguing. This afternoon, they were arguing about finances and tax return money. The suspect was in the backseat with their son and the victim was driving. As the victim exited the Lloyd Expressway onto the N First Avenue exit, he stated the suspect struck him on the right side of his face with a closed fist and climbed into the front seat. While stopped at a light at the intersection of W Division Street / N First Avenue, the suspect placed the car in park, turned the ignition off and took the key. The victim reportedly exited the vehicle and told the suspect to take the car as he walked home. A moderate contusion / swelling was observed around the victim's right eye. The suspect and victim are in a domestic relationship with a child-in-common, whom was present at time of the altercation. LW 1903727 Child-custody Interfere [bm]	While officers were attempting to make contact with someone at the apartment front door, we began to hear a male and female yelling at each other on a balcony. Officers walked around the building under the balcony and heard the male yelling "It's because I hit you inside?" The male noticed officers and said he would keep it down. Officers told the male to come down and let us inside, but he said no. The female involved was able to come down and let us inside the apartment. The female stated that her and her boyfriend were arguing because he was upset about his brother being suicidal. She stated that he had began drinking and they started to argue, but he pushed her during the argument. The female stated that she was not injured and did not want to pursue any charges, but did agree that she should leave for the night. Officers escorted the female inside her apartment to allow her to pack a bag in order to leave for the night. Officers made contact with the male and he denied pushing her during the argument. The male was advised that the female was leaving for the night and to not try and have contact with her for the rest of the night. The male was also advised to stop yelling on the balcony because it was disturbing the neighbors. The male quieted down and the female left for the night to stay at a different location. Protected Victim VICTIM of Child-custody Interfere [bm] (C), between 16:04, 02/21/2019 and 16:30, 02/21/2019. Reported: 02/21/2019. On 02/21/2019, at approximately 16:35 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at 3120 Hartmetz Avenue in reference to a child custody dispute. The mother called stating the father of her children was late for visitation and was told she did not have to allow him to see his children if he was late. The father called stating the mother of his children was denying him his court authorized parenting time. Officers arrived on scene and spoke with the female, later identified as the offender. She stated she was instructed by the court to refuse parenting time to the father of their two (2) daughters if he was late for visitation. She also advised she had a restraining order against him, but acknowledged they were to speak with each other only in reference to their children and visitation. She provided a document dated January 2019 in reference to the restraining order, but was unable to provide any documentation from the court stating she was to withhold parenting time to the father if he was late for visitation. The mother became quite irate with officers and demanded to speak with a sergeant, so one was requested. Officers spoke with the father, identified as the victim, who was parked a short distance away. He provided officers with a more recent document in reference to the restraining order and it advised he was still to have parenting time with their two (2) daughters every other Saturday and every Thursday. He also had and provided copies of the parenting time guidelines they previously agreed to. The mother continued to refuse visitation to the father, even after being shown and		THIRY, K. LW 1903745	Theft All Other &lt; $750	They left in a black colored SUV and possibly obtained a license plate number. Officers arrived on scene and located the caller, identified as the victim. She reported her ex-husband, identified as an offender, knocked on her door, she answered and exited outside. When she exited her residence, she was reportedly attacked without provocation by her ex-husband and an unknown black female, also identified as an offender. She reported her ex-husband had her in a head-lock as the black female struck her with her fists. After the altercation, the suspects and two other males entered a black colored SUV and fled the scene. They obtained license plate information, which returned to a black colored Toyota RAV4. Officers observed a contusion on the back of the victim's right arm, in the area of her triceps muscle. The victim stated the attack was unprovoked, but officers remembered there was an incident around 18:52 hours in the area of Diamond Avenue / N Heidelberg Avenue in which a white colored pickup truck was following a black colored Toyota RAV4, provoking the caller. The caller during that incident was inside of the black colored RAV4 and claimed a female was following her in a white colored pickup truck. She reported the female in the truck used to be married to her boyfriend. However, the vehicle stopped following her and she cancelled the run prior to officers arriving in the area. There was a white colored pickup truck on-scene at 110 N Ninth Avenue and the suspect vehicle from the battery was a black colored Toyota RAV4. It is likely the two incidents were connected. The victim requested to pursue charges against her ex-husband for touching her in an angry manner and against the black female with her ex-husband for striking her. The victim was provided a case number and the report was forwarded to the EPD Domestic Violence Investigations Unit. No arrests were made.	EAGLESON, R. C.
