LW	Crisis Intervention-immediate Detention	walking west toward Deaconess Hospital. When the victim reached the east/west alley between Columbia and Maryland he was confronted by the suspect who demanded his lottery tickets. The victim assumed that the suspect was inside of the store when he purchased the lottery tickets because the victim did not discuss purchasing the lottery tickets with anyone. As the suspect demanded the lottery tickets he pointed a black firearm at the victim at which time the victim attempted to run away out of fear. As the victim started to run he fell to the ground. The fall caused minor pain and abrasions to the victim's elbow and the victim's ZTE cell phone fell out of his pocket as well. The suspect did not physically touch the victim during the encounter, but the suspect made the victim afraid that he may be physically harmed if he did not comply. The victim was able to flee on foot before the suspect was able to take the lottery tickets from the victim. The victim ran south on Baker and then west on Columbia until he was able to flag down a bystander at Read Street who allowed the victim to use his phone to call 911. The victim last observed the suspect running west down the alley from where the robbery occurred. The victim described the suspect was a white male approximately 5' 08" to 6' 0" tall with a slender build. The suspect was wearing a black jacket, and black baseball style hat with an orange and black bandanna covering the lower portion of his face. I reviewed the security camera footage from the Phillips 66 gas station. According to the time on the DVR, I observed the victim enter the store at approximately 0516 hours. A white male wearing a black Carhart coat, tan pants, a black backpack, and headphones entered the store shortly after the victim. As the victim purchased his lottery tickets this white male was standing directly behind the victim and would likely have known what the victim purchased. The victim left the store at approximately 0519 hours walking southbound out of the camera view, and the white male in the black coat left immediately after the victim following the same path. I contacted the Crime Scene Detective Lincoln to retrieve the store video and notified Detective Jones in AIU with details of this report.	PHELPS, J. W.
