Case #	Description	(A)tttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1906417	Victim stated that on 03/29 DCS showed up at her house along with Officers. At that time she talked to Officers about what was going on. They advised her to inform the Offender to have no more contact with her. The next time he tried calling she did but he has continued. Tonight she showed me multiple messages from him on her phone even after she told him to stop contacting her. The last several messages were a picture of him holding a bullet, a picture of a gun, a picture looking down the barrel of the gun, and a threatening message. The Victim also said she had a voicemail he had left her. She said she was afraid for the safety of her and her child after these latest messages. She was advised to follow up with the Prosecutors Office and was given information on how to seek a Protective Order. She is saving all messages along with any future messages.		TABOR, A. Y.
