Upon arriving IO-K.Davis was standing out front and said that the suspects, who had been standing at the doorway of the apartment, saw the patrol car coming down the street and went toward the back of the apartment, getting into a black car and pulled off as I pulled up to the front. Officer J Helm and Officer C Karmire made a traffic stop on a black car that was exiting the complex as soon as this information was passed on. The car that they stopped ended up not being involved. I spoke with the V-C Weber and he advised that his cousin IO-K.Davis came running into the apartment with her friend IO-D.Hammers and shut the door. Weber asked what was going on and they told him that they were being followed by two guys. Not too long after that there was a knock at the door. Weber asked what these guys wanted from them and they said they didn't know. Nobody answered the door, it was then that one of the males that had followed the girls kicked in the door. Weber said that the males said that they wanted their weed back because the girls had paid for it with fake money. The girls said that they didn't have it and they didn't purchase any. Weber asked for proof that this had happened and the males gave him 2 counterfeit $100 bills. They then showed messages from IO-K.Davis making the deal to purchase marijuana. Weber said that the males said that they just wanted their weed or they would be coming back with a gun. Weber said that he would just pay them since the girls denied having the weed. Weber asked the males to step out while he retrieved his money and they did, stepping outside. When Weber returned with the $200, the males had		WILSON, M. R.
