Reported: 04/17/2019. The victim and offender have been in a relationship (on again / off again) for the last two years and have been living together in the victim's apartment. On the date of the incident, the victim decided to permanently end the relationship and kick the offender out of her home. The offender became extremely angry and began to tear up the victim's apartment. The victim announced that she was calling the police and the offender grabbed her cell phone from her as he began to strike her in the face and head with open and closed hands. The victim attempted to flee, but the offender grabbed and eventually dragged her into a bedroom where she began to scream for help. The offender then grasped both of his hands around the victims throat as he yelled for her to stop screaming. The victim said she was thrown to the ground where the offender continued to choke her while saying he would stop if she stopped screaming. The victim claimed that she began to black out as she was gasping for air and struggling to breathe. At this point, she stopped screaming and the offender loosened his grip on her throat. The victim said that as soon as she could, she again began to scream and cry for help and the offender once again began to strangle her. The victim said she again started to black out, but started to vomit. At this point, the offender released his grip on her throat and began to cry while begging for a ride to get away. The victim agreed to drive the offender to an unknown address in East Lodge Apartments, but had to turn around and return when they found that nobody was home at that location. Upon returning to the parking lot of the victim's apartment, the offender struck the victim on the right side of her face with a closed fist. The victim instantly jumped from her car and fled looking for help. The offender gave chase, but eventually fled the scene. The victim claimed to have pain, some swelling and some redness/bruising on her face from being struck. The victim also had bruising and pain around her throat from being choked. The victim stated that the offender has a history of abusing her and that he has continued to threaten and harass her since this incident occurred.	CARLILE, A. T.

No victims listed. Officers were dispatched to 1828-A E Division St in reference to a person with a gun run. Upon arriving Officer R Smith located the subject that was supposed to have had the gun, IO-Cody Clark. Clark didn't have a gun on him but was placed in handcuffs and put in a patrol car until a detective could speak with him. Officers spoke with IO-Holmes and IO-Koch who are residents at 1828-A E Division St. They said that Clark has been staying with them and that he had a gun out prior to our arrival. They said that he had fired the gun into the air while outside. There were no calls from neighbors in regards to shots being fired. While checking the backyard for a firearm a glass case was located that contained several syringes and a container with a baggie containing a crystal like substance. These items were found by Officer Doane. They were laying under a white passenger car on the property of 1828 E Division Street. Nobody on scene at the residence acknowledged that the glass case was theirs. The contents of the glass case were dropped at headquarters to be disposed of properly by Officer R Smith. Detectives Ausiekker and Keen arrived and spoke with all involved parties and it was determined that there was no evidence to support a crime being committed. Consent was given to search the house for a gun and none was located by Officer M Wilson and Viper Jackson. Per Holmes she wanted Clark to leave and be barred from the property.		WILSON, M.
