LW 1907883 Theft All Other < $750	Shealey, Hope Ann (W F, 47) VICTIM of Theft All Other < $750 (C), at 204 Adams Ave, Evansville, IN, between 00:00, 04/18/2019 and 02:47, 04/18/2019. Reported: 04/18/2019. Officers were dispatched to 1322 Parret St on 4/18/2019 at 0247hrs in reference to a theft report. I met with the victim who stated that she was scrapping for items in an alley behind Adams Ave when someone she knew approached her and offered her items to take home. The victim accepted the items and placed her bag containing her purse and shoes in the front driver`s seat of her vehicle and went into his house to get more items and then went back outside to her vehicle. During the time period that she was inside the home, her bag that contained her purse and shoes were taken. The victim did not notice it was missing right away. The victim also stated that her windows were down while she was inside of the house. When she did notice it was missing, she approached the suspect who lived at the address and asked him where her bag was. The suspect said that he had no idea and got really defensive about her asking where her bag was at. The victim checked the area surrounding the house and the alley behind, but was not able to locate anything. The victim then drove to another friend`s house at the above address and called to report her stolen items.		HARRINGTON, M.

Case #	Description	(A)ttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
	Officers were dispatched to 2531 Sunburst Blvd on 4/18/19 at 2255hrs in reference to a residential entry. Officers arrived and spoke to the victim who stated that she believed her ex-husband had busted in her door to her apartment. Nothing was taken and he was not in the residence when she came home. When we arrived, we observed that the door had been forced open. There was damage to the door and the door frame. The victim showed officers messages on her phone where the suspect stated that he seen her at various places and described to her who was with her. The victim has multiple messages on her phone of recent similar actions. Officers advised her of how to file for a protective order against the suspect. She stated that she had a previous protective order against him, but had dropped it. Officers asked her if she might possibly want to go to a shelter, however they may not take her without it involving a domestic violence against her. She then stated the suspect had raped her several days ago. Officers asked her if she reported the rape and she said no. The victim stated that the suspect did it as blackmail against her. She had willingly met up with him near Indian Trace where the alleged rape occurred. She also stated that she did not want to pursue charges. Officers contacted dispatch to see if they could contact the local women's shelters to see if they would make an exception for her case. Albion advised that they would shelter her if she went through the process of filling out all the paperwork needed. The victim changed her mind and said she wanted to stay home since maintenance was coming to fix her door. While talking to the victim, she stated multiple times that she was never at any point in fear of her life nor did she want to press charges against the suspect.
