Reported: 04/19/2019. I, Officer S. P. Smith, was dispatched to a theft in progress at Rural King at 2300 E Morgan Ave. A white male had walked out to the parking lot with a cart of power drills past all points of purchase with paying for the items. The reporter, Samantha Vanhooser stated that when loss prevention aproached him, he got into a blue Pontiac Sunfire Kentucky plate 584BRJ. Loss prevention was able to take the keys out of the ignition and the offender then fled the scene on foot. Loss prevention recovered the items taken from the store. Lindsey Schartung then approached loss prevention and was causing a scene because she told them that the keys to the vehicle were hers and she wanted them back. This is when I arrived on scene. I went to place L. Schartung into handcuffs and she pulled her arm away from me. I told her to stop and she again pulled her arm away and twisted away from me so I could not handcuff her. I was able to gain control of her arm and place her into handcuffs. I called for another car and Officer P. Klien arrived on scene. Officer Klien read L. Schartung Miranda Warnings. She stated that the male she was with was "Lawrence Dowdy" from Owensboro KY and she had given him the ride to Rural King. When I searched her purse incident to arrest there was a small metal box that contained a small baggie with a crystal substance that field tested positive for Methamphetamine using Nark II test kit and had a field weight of 0.5 grams. There was also a yellow rectangle pill marked R039 Alprazolam 2 mg (Xanax) in a plastic wrapper. L. Schartung with then transported and booked at VCCC.
