Reported: 04/01/2019. Officers were dispatched to a domestic violence in progress. Officers arrived and were advised the offender had left the area in her car. Officers were unable to locate her in the area. The victim advised he and his wife had been separated, but were trying to make things work. A divorce hearing is scheduled for later in the month. He had stayed the night, but was woke up at 0400 to her yelling. She started shoving him telling him to get his things out and leave. It was his understanding she had gotten into his phone and disliked something she saw. She then started to throw things at him. As he was trying to leave, she escalated to pushing and scratching him. She was also punching him in the face. He got himself and his clothes out of the house and to his car. She pursued him with a hammer. She threw the hammer at his car, causing 2 dents in the rear left-side door. He called 911 and she said she did not care. While outside, she had his hood over his head and was pulling down. He said he was pushing her off of him and called for officers instead of escalating force on her. Officers observed a laceration above the left eye and another below the left eye of the victim. He also had scratches and redness on the left side of his neck. The victim refused medical treatment. He said he had all of his things and was not going back to the address. He was advised how to obtain a protective order. He was given the case number and advised to follow-up with the prosecutor's office.		MONTANK, J. C.
