Central Dispatched was advised by W1 that a silver passenger car with Oregon plate FED532, struck the victim's vehicle. W1 was not on scene upon my arrival. I was able to make contact with W1 via telephone. W1 stated to me that the suspect vehicle was driven by a black female. W1 stated that the once the offender struck the victim's vehicle, the offender fled from the scene. I then spoke with W2 via telephone, who was the passenger of W1's vehicle. W2 stated that the suspect vehicle pulled into a parking space next to the victim's vehicle. W2 stated that the offender then backed out of the parking space, and as she was backing her vehicle she struck the victim's vehicle. W2 stated that the suspect vehicle will possibly have damage on the driver side of the vehicle near the bumper. Neither witness were able to provide a make and model of the suspect vehicle. W2 described the offender as an attractive black female, possibly in her early 20's, with shoulder length hair. W2 stated that there were possibly 2 to 3 other occupants in the suspect vehicle. The victim's vehicle was parked on the parking lot on the far east side of the lot facing east. The suspect vehicle attempted to park in the parking space just south of the victim's vehicle. The victim's vehicle suffered right rear damage on the passenger side.		SMITH, R. A.

LW 1907018	alcoholic beverage coming from his person. The reporter stated that the issue started last night when he went over to their house to confront them about fireworks and other noise issues in which nothing was accomplished. He went on to state that he went to Walgreens to get groceries and on his way back he was jumped by the two individuals at the house he confronted last night. The reporter on Hess was highly intoxicated and did not know if he wanted to pursue charges at first. The reporter was told that a report would be done and that he needed to go to the prosecutors office to make sure charges are filled and he should go attempt to obtain a PO with the close proximity of the subjects residences. The other half of the incident were spoke to at their residence on Maryland st where the confrontation took place. They stated that the subject on Hess had come over onto their property last night threatening them and causing issues in front of the kids. They went on to state that on today`s date that same subject came walking through the alley and did not say a word to them the first time he went by. On the way back through they told officers that the subject started running his mouth and at some point set his bags down then came onto their property very aggressive trying to fight. The scuffle lasted a short time, the parties separated and that is when the subjects on Maryland called 911. They were advised to go and seek a PO as well because of the close proximity to the other half of the incident but those individuals just wanted the issue squashed while we were there. A neighbor has low quality video of the incident and is going to burn it to disk for officers. He was advised to call when it was ready. All parties involved were given case numbers for the report.	(C)	KINGSTON, A. B.
