LW 1906477 Theft All Other < $750	Ruler Foods VICTIM of Theft- Shoplifting < $750 (C), at 730 S Green River Rd, Evansville, IN, between 16:20, 03/31/2019 and 17:10, 03/31/2019. Reported: 03/31/2019. Offender entered the store (Ruler Foods) and concealed approximately six steaks into his jacket pocket. Offender passed all points of sale and attempted to exit the store without paying for the food when the manager stopped him in the vestibule area. The offender was escorted to an office room until the police could arrive. Shortly after getting escorted to the office room, the offender became deranged and belligerent. The offender somehow climbed up into the ceiling of the office room and attempted to escape the building through unordinary means. While in the ceiling, the offender punched his way through drywall and climbed/fell down into another office room of the store. The manager used a keypad/lock to get inside the new room and confronted the offender again. The offender then climbed back up into the drywall hole back into the original office room ceiling. The offender then climbed over and through the ceiling and eventually punched his way out of drywall into the main grocery area of the store. The offender came out of the drywall hole and was eventually taken into custody by an off duty police officer that was shopping inside the store and a responding officer. Numerous customers watched in disbelief and were shouting for officers to tase the offender after he protruded himself through the drywall hole and into the grocery area. The offender lied about his name to officers. The offender caused approximately 10,000 dollars worth of damage to the store. Damage included drywall, ceiling tiles, electrical wires, air conditioning unit, lighting fixtures, and other miscellaneous property. Offender was taken to St. Vincent hospital for medical clearance and then transported to jail.		POWERS, D. T.
