Dispatch advised that a nurse had been struck by a visitor to the unit. When Officers arrived all parties involved were already separated. Before the Victim was located I spoke with a Witness who is also St. Vincent staff in the ICU area. She stated the Offender has been verbally abusive toward staff and has been difficult to deal with all day. She said his adult son is the patient. Tonight the son coded on another floor and was brought to this ICU unit. Staff had closed the curtain to the room and informed the Offender and the rest of the family they could not go in at this time. The Witness stated the Offender was very agitated by this and kept trying to get into the room while verbally berating the staff. At one point just after the Victim had walked out of the room the Offender grabbed the curtain and threw it open. When he did his arm struck the Victim in the head. The Offender quickly apologized. I asked the Witness if she felt he had intentionally hit the Victim. She stated she did not think he hit her on purpose but that he was very aggressive in his actions. Once the Victim was located she gave the same version of events that the Witness had given. She stated she did not think that the Offender had intentionally tried to hit her but that he had been reckless in his actions and was interfering with them being able to do their jobs. The Victim had a complaint of pain and was holding an ice pack on her head. She did not have any visible injuries at this time. The Victim along with her supervisor requested that the Offender be barred/banned from St. Vincent and escorted off the property. She was given a case number and advised that if she wished to pursue charges against the Offender to follow up with the Prosecutors Office. The Offender was sitting in the ICU waiting room when Officers arrived. He also stated that he had been trying to go into his sons room and when he opened the curtain he accidentally struck a nurse in the head with his arm. He was advised that due to his reckless actions which caused him to strike a nurse he was going to be removed from the property and that they had requested he be barred/banned as well. The Offender left without incident.	GREEN, R. E.

Reported: 05/03/2019. Upon arriving at Scheller Fitness and Bike shop I spoke with RP-K Rickenbaugh. He said that he had noticed the OF-Z.H. when he came into the store because it was around 70 degrees out but Z.H. was wearing a winter style coat. Due to their experience with previous thefts this made them suspicious. Z.H. had wandered around the store for about 30 minutes. During that time Rickenbaugh had written down several descriptions about Z.H. and the vehicle that he had arrived in, including the plate number. Rickenbaugh said that Z.H. had gone to the bathroom. Just prior to that he had noticed that the box containing a Garmin GPS watch was missing from the wall. While Z.H. was in the bathroom they reviewed video and could see that Z.H. had taken the watch from the wall and had it with him when he went to the bathroom. Z.H. then exited the bathroom and exited the store. Rickenbaugh checked the bathroom and surrounding area to see if Z.H. had just laid it down but didn't locate the watch. From the plate and description of the vehicle I was able to locate and address for the registered owner. I went to the address of the registered owner and spoke with them, Donald and Patricia Huber. They advised that their son OF-Z.H. is driving the vehicle. They said that he was currently at work and wanted to know why I was looking for him. When I told them that I believed that he had stolen a watch from Scheller they immediately called their son Z.H. and asked him if he had the watch. Z.H. ,via speaker phone, told his father that he had the watch. Donald told his son that they would be on their way to get the watch so that it could be returned. Patricia said that she would go get the watch from her stepson's work (Z.H. works in the northern part of the county) and bring it back to give to me. Patricia called me when she was back home with the watch and I went and picked it up and returned it to Scheller's. The box was unopened. The store has video evidence.	WILSON, M. R.
