LW 1910213 To Veh [bm] Criminal Recklessness While Armed W/deadly Weapon	Society VICTIM of Criminal Recklessness While Armed W/deadly Weapon (C), at 2599 Covert Ave/edson Ave, Evansville, IN, between 10:56, 05/16/2019 and 10:59, 05/16/2019. Reported: 05/16/2019. On the listed date, officers received multiple complaints of a vehicle occupied by four juveniles that were firing paintball from paintball guns at pedestrians. Dispatch put out a call to look for the suspect vehicle. I, Officer Hastings, observed a vehicle matching the description of the suspect vehicle. I observed the vehicle was occupied by at least two people prior to the stop and at the time the vehicle was at Covert and Edson Ave, I observed four occupants. Upon speaking to the juvenile driver, OF#1, I advised him the reason for the traffic stop. I observed what appeared to be pink paint droplets on the driver's side of the vehicle. This paint appeared to match what the victims involved in the other cases were struck by. I stood by with the vehicle until additional officers arrived. Once other officers were on scene, the occupants were removed from the vehicle and as the passenger side occupants exited, I observed two paint ball guns along with additional paintballs laying on the floor board of the vehicle. The victim from case number 19-20212, who was struck in the back with several paintballs, was brought to the scene by Officer Carlisle and the victim advised the vehicle we had stopped match the vehicle the subjects shot at him from. Two additional cases, 19-20208 and 19-20209, were taken involving these offenders causing damage to a vehicle and striking a victim in the forehead. Juvenile detectives and crime scene detective were called to the scene to collect evidence. The juvenile offenders were taken to YCC and the adult was taken to the Vanderburgh Co Confinement Center on the listed charges.		HASTINGS, M. J.

Reported: 05/16/2019. I, Officer Eagleson, was driving my personal vehicle to work driving west-bound on the Lloyd Expressway. I noticed a white Ford Escape following closely behind me. I noticed the driver was honking the horn on the vehicle and flailing her arms in the vehicle. I took the exit from the Lloyd onto Division Street. I came to a stop at Division Street / Mary Street. As I came to a stop, the white Ford Escape almost crashed into my vehicle as I noticed the vehicle brake hard. The driver of the white Ford Escape continuously honked the horn. At this point, I believed the driver required assistance. I pulled off to the left side of the road, exited my vehicle, called off my location, and approached the female who was still sitting in the white Ford Escape. The female advised she was having problems with her children. I noticed the female's words were slurred and her inability to talk coherently. The female advised she had active warrants from Vanderburgh County. I asked the female for her name. She provided me her name and date of birth, which I later discovered was false. I had the female exit the vehicle. I noticed the female was unsteady on her feet and had poor manual dexterity. As I attempted to place the female into handcuffs, she stiffened up her right arm and pulled away from me. I told the female multiple times to stop and to stop resisting. An Indiana State Trooper arrived and assisted me place the female into handcuffs. The State Trooper ran the female's real name and date of birth over the radio for a warrant check.
