	contact was made with the listed involved others, M. Sandage-Shofner, and R. Stallworth. Shofner stated she and Stallworth had called off their relationship yesterday afternoon, and she had come by to drop off groceries to the apartment, because she knew Stallworth did not have food in the home. Shofner stated she and Stallworth began arguing over Shofner not coming into the bedroom to speak to Stallworth, before getting ready to leave. Shofner stated they began closing the distance between each other while arguing, and at one point Stallworth pushed her back out of her face, so Shofner then punched her with a closed fist. Stallworth then punched Shofner in retaliation. Shofner's cousin broke up the incident and called 911. After speaking to both parties, neither wanted to pursue charges. Shofner stated she just wanted to grab her belongings and leave. Stallworth advised she was fine with Shofner grabbing her items, and advised if officers could come back with Shofner tomorrow so she can get the rest of her belongings without an incident. Stallworth inquired about a protective order and was given information on how to obtain the order.
