LW 1910965 Battery - Class A Misdemeanor [am]	Fisher, Susie Ann (W F, 36) VICTIM of Battery - Class A Misdemeanor [am] (C), at 2200 W Delaware St, Evansville, IN, between 02:10, 05/25/2019 and 02:30, 05/25/2019. Reported: 05/25/2019. I was dispatched to 2200 W Delaware in reference to a battery that had occurred. On scene I spoke with Susie and Kendra who advised they were sitting outside when a large group arrived in several cars and began walking west down the street from their address. A short time later the victims heard several loud booms and they walked out to see what had happened. As they did this the group was now walking back toward their cars and one of the subjects stated they were going to shoot up on the houses on the block. Kendra stated she confronted the subjects and told them that they have family and kids on the block and they didnt need any trouble. At this time they had gotten into their vehicles and Susie stated she was then bumped by the driver of the Lexus. The passenger then got out and struck Kendra across the left side of her face and then maced both Kendra and Susie in the face. The suspects were last seen driving East on Delaware and have not yet been located.		ELFREICH, C. A.
LW 1910969 Battery - Committed W/ Deadly Weapon	Noble, Cody James (W M, 25) VICTIM of Battery - Committed W/ Deadly Weapon (C), at 4820 Tecumseh Ln, Evansville, IN, on 05/25/2019, 03:21. Reported: 05/25/2019. Officers were dispatched to 4820 Tecumseh Ln for a disorderly conduct. Upon arrival officers met with multiple victims. One victim had a large cut on his head that was bleeding profusely. He was treated by AMR on scene. The other victim showed officers damage to his Dodge Truck window. The victims and a witness stated they had gotten into an argument with a male at Marina Point. The witness stated the male began following them down a road near Marina Point in his vehicle. The road dead ended and the male offender exited his vehicle with a bat/pipe. The witness stated the offender swung the bat at the truck, breaking the back window. The offender then swung the bat through the open front passenger window and struck the victim in the head. The group then drove away and got off the road at The Pony to call police. Officers collected suspect information and provided the victims with case numbers. The victim were also advised on how to pursue criminal charges.		HASSLER, J. H.

Reported: 05/25/2019. Officers were dispatched to 401 N Burkhardt Road (Walmart) in regard to a shoplifter. Upon arriving, I met with Walmart Loss Prevention employees who advised they had two adults in the office who had shoplifted from the store. Walmart Loss Prevention advised they had underrang the merchandise they selected from the store at self-checkout register #38. The offenders would scan an item, place it in the bags, and then place an unscanned item in the bags. The offenders paid for the items they scanned, picked up all of the items (included the unscanned items) that were in bags, and walked passed all points of purchase without paying for the unscanned items. Walmart Loss Prevention employees stopped the offenders at the grocery doors as they exited the store. I asked the offenders if they had shoplifted in the store today. Both offenders admitted that they had shoplifted from the store. The offenders advised they were married and lived together, and could not afford to purchase the items they stole. The total cost of the stolen/recovered items was $172.54 (before adding taxes). Neither offender had previous convictions for theft in their criminal history. Both offenders were cited and released from the scene.		EAGLESON, R. C.

Reported: 05/25/2019. Officers were dispatched to 600 N Fourth Ave for a hit and run. The reporter and victims arrived and saw their three vehicles were hit while parked on the north side of Iowa St outside of 600 N Fourth Ave. A ford F150 had damage to the rear driver side taillight. The green Ford Fiesta had the most damage with significant damage to the driver side front bumper, headlight, doors and some damage to the rear bumper. It was pushed into the red Chevy parked behind it. The owner said the damage to passenger side of front bumper and small scratches on runner of driver side doors was new. There were silver car parts on scene, including a driver-side sideview mirror. A camera at 600 N Fourth Ave barely caught the suspect vehicle on camera. It was a silver 4-door passenger car. It had significant damage to the front driver side bumper and is likely missing a driver-side sideview mirror. It struck the cars while going east on Iowa St and immediately left southbound on Fourth Ave. Later at 8:50pm officers were dispatched to Virginia and Fourth where the victims located the vehicle. They saw the vehicle in the area and the driver attempted to elude them in this alley at 405 N. Fourth. They could see it was a silver Nissan Altima with license plate 728KXA. It was driven by a black male in his 30s with a fro and yellow shirt with dots. The passenger was a white male in his 30s with blue jeans and a blue shirt.		VANCLEAVE, N.
