LW 1911167 Child-custody Interfere [bm]	Protected Victim VICTIM of Child-custody Interfere [bm] (C), between 07:30, 05/28/2019 and 07:33, 05/28/2019. Reported: 05/28/2019. Officers were dispatched to 823 E Riverside Dr reference a child custody report. On scene the victim reported the suspect was not allowing her parenting time again. The victim has filed several previous reports. The victim is suppose to have the child on her days off being Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. The order is 82D07-1801-JP-000029. The suspect walked over from his mothers house across the street, 823 E Riverside, and sat on his front porch, 856. I asked the suspect why he wasn`t providing parenting time when it was required. The suspect was passive aggressive and told officers when the judge tells him to provide the child he would. The suspect was advised the order is doing just that. The suspect told the officer to take their report and get off his property. The suspect was asked if he agreed with the victim having the child over the next three days and he began to talk about another incident. The suspect was asked when he would provide the child and he said later today. The suspect requested a supervisor as he does each time police come to the residence. The suspect told the supervisor to get off his property as well. The victim reported the suspect provides her the child whenever he feels like it. The victim advised there is no consistency when he provides the child and he doesn`t go by the order.		CUETO, J. A.
