LW 1911999 Domestic [am] Disorderly Conduct [bm]	Officers were dispatched to an assault in progress. Dispatch advised a male called that a female had stabbed him. Officers arrived to the female exiting the apartment with several other subjects. Officers detained the female and called for other officers. The female was yelling and asked to be quiet. Her demeanor was inciting the others to yell as well. The female continued to yell. The male exited the apartment and had a small cut on his right arm. It was determined the female was the victim, as she stated she was punched in the mouth. The female said there was no knife involved. The male stated he cut himself on something during the altercation. The female had no visible injuries and refused medical treatment. The male was treated on scene by ambulance personnel. The female was given the case number. As officers were giving the victim case number and explaining the process of obtaining a protective order, she continued to yell out. She again was asked to calm down, and refused. She was arrested and transported to jail. Protected Victim VICTIM of Disorderly Conduct [bm] (C), between 23:15, 06/07/2019 and 23:35, 06/07/2019. Reported: 06/08/2019. Officers were called to a domestic violence in progress. The female called was not making much sense. The male called in and stated the female was naked and refusing to leave his house. Upon arrival, the female was outside, completely naked, and screaming aloud. Her speech was slurred and she appeared to be under the influence of an intoxicating agent. She later admitted to drinking. After convincing her to put on clothing, she claimed the male had shoved her down. The male claimed she had hit him, but he did not want to press charges. There were no marks on either subject. The female had brought two underage subjects with her to drink. The adult (20) female became combative and argumentative when the intoxicated juvenile (16) was taken into custody. At jail, both females fought with officers and force was used on one of them. The other was restrained while she attempted to fight with officers.		ADAMS, H. D.
