Reported: 06/14/2019. Officers along with EFD were dispatched to 3205 Vann Park Blvd. Multiple callers reported hearing a loud boom in the hallway. Before arriving dispatched advised they were getting a fire alarm from this location. When I arrived the residents of the units in this building had already exited or were in the process of doing so. The common area between units was full of smoke and the cover to a light fixture on the bottom level was laying on the floor broken. After EFD checked the building they determined that some type of firecracker had been set off in the hall. They were able to use a fan to clear the smoke which they determined had come from the firecracker and not anything in the building burning. There was no damage other than the broken light cover which was right above where the firecracker had gone off. The light itself was still functional. There is no suspect information. All of the residents who were around were parents with very small children. Nobody reported hearing anything other than the loud explosion. The residents all returned to their apartments. Maintenance was contacted by both EFD and a resident so they could come out to shut off the alarm. After Maintenance arrived they contacted the property manager and were given a case number.		GREEN, R. E.

Dwelling	Reported: 06/15/2019. Officers were dispatched to the 1200 block of N Third Ave in reference to a structure fire. No one was inside the home and there were no injuries. Neighbors informed officers they witnessed several subjects exit the home as it was on fire and started physically fighting in the yard. When officers arrived the scene was chaotic as all nearby residences were outside. Officers later learned that the owner of the home, who was unable to be reached, was letting his nephew stay in the basement of the home and he was the only resident at the time. It was also later determined that the nephew initially lied to police when questioned about being in the home stating that he was only passing by and noticed the smoke. He stated he then decided to run inside to make sure nobody was inside.
