LW 1913257 Burglary- Breaks & Enters W/intent Commit Felony/ Theft	Winternheimer, Cale E. (W M, 48) VICTIM of Burglary- Breaks & Enters W/intent Commit Felony/ Theft (C), at 4301 Kratzville Rd, Evansville, IN, between 08:00, 06/18/2019 and 15:00, 06/21/2019. Reported: 06/24/2019. On 06/24/2019, at approximately 14:00 hours, an Evansville Police Officer was sent to the Vanderburgh County Confinement Center to speak with an inmate in reference to a burglary report. The officer arrived on scene and met with the inmate, identified as the victim. He reported learning from his fiancée, identified as the involved other, someone had entered their detached garage and stole numerous items, tools and equipment. She reportedly arrived at the residence, located at 4301 Kratzville Road, on 06/20/2019 to find boards placed on their residence's doors, windows and those of their detached garage. Items that had been inside of their residence were sitting on the rear porch / patio area. She climbed through a garage window and observed many items missing / stolen. She last knew the residence was secure, along with their property, on 06/18/2019. She called the police that morning to make a report, but was unable to make a report since she was not the victim. The involved other returned to their residence the following day, 06/21/2019, and observed more boards placed on their residence. She advised the victim more items were missing. The victim reported his fiancée told him the items missing included their lawn equipment, numerous power tools and tool boxes. Approximate value of loss was $15,800. The victim reported he and his fiancée had lived at the residence for just over 5 years. He stated their residence was badly damaged in a house fire in March of this year, forcing them to live elsewhere in the meantime. After speaking with the victim, officers canvassed the area around the victim's residence for surveillance equipment. When they did so, they observed several boards missing on the residence and a board had been removed from the front garage door, but the board laid against the doorway to appear as though it was still secured.		THIRY, K. Reported: 06/24/2019. Officers were dispatched to 4551 University Dr for a battery report for a battery that had occurred 30 minutes prior outside of 104 N Ninth Ave. The victim said the offender lured her to this address on the false pretense of the victim meeting someone else. When she arrived and was waiting in the car, the offender walked out to her car and entered the passenger side door before she could reach over and lock it. He threatened her not to report him and hit her in the face. He then took her phone and used it as a ploy to try to get her to come back to him. She kept shouting and he gave the phone back. She then drove away to a safe location to make a report. I arrived and could observe faint swelling on the left side of her upper lip. She had scratches on her right bicep but she thought they could be from an earlier reported incident this past weekend with the same offender. She also told him that she wanted to kill herself, and he told her that he could do that for her. After the violent incidents from the weekend allegedly involving a gun, she felt fearful for her life after he said this.		VANCLEAVE, N.
