B. Handicap Parking

1. Request approval for the following:

Motion by Kayce Zeller, 2nd by Richard Hubbard and so ordered to approve the following:

- a. 816 E. Mulberry
This property has a concrete drive next to the home and a front entrance with handrails to enter the home. The property appears to have a driveway that is not wide enough to open the door and navigate with a handicap individual. This property appears to qualify for an on-street "handicap" parking space.

Motion by Kayce Zeller, 2nd by Richard Hubbard and so ordered to approve the following:

b. 622 Jefferson Street

This property has a concrete drive next to the home and side entrances with handrails to enter the home. There are three (3) handicap residents at this address and not enough room in the driveway to accommodate the vehicles. Based on the occupancy, it appears this property qualifies for an on-street “handicap” parking space. It is noted when the resident vacates the property must be reevaluated for “handicap” parking compliance.

2. Request approval for the removal of the following:

Motion by Kayce Zeller, 2nd by Richard Hubbard and so ordered to approve the removal of the following:

a. 1123 W MARYLAND
