LW 1915625	Upon arrival I met with the RP and offender after obtaining all the needed information, the offender was cited and released from the scene with a court date. No further. Carter, Angela May (W F, 44) VICTIM of Criminal Mischief To Veh [bm] (C), at 658 E Louisiana St, Evansville, IN, between 21:00, 07/21/2019 and 21:01, 07/21/2019. Reported: 07/21/2019.		BEARD, J. A.
LW 1915626	At the listed date and time, Officers were dispatched to 658 E Louisiana St in reference to a criminal mischief report. The victim was on scene and stated that someone threw a brick through her driver`s side window. Officers could observe a brick in the passenger seat and a broken driver`s side window. She also stated that the neighbor at 657 E Louisiana St had video of the incident since his cameras face that direction. The victim was given a case number for her records. Buckman, Craig Phillip (W M, 37) VICTIM of Custody Dispute (C), at 321 Keck Ave, Evansville, IN, between 18:00, 07/21/2019 and 20:57, 07/21/2019. Reported: 07/21/2019. On 07/21/2019, at approximately 21:01 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested to meet with the caller near the intersection with Diamond Avenue / Stringtown Road in reference to a custody dispute. The caller reported his ex-wife was refusing to give him custody of their children during his parenting time. Officers arrived on scene and met with the caller, identified as the victim. He reported he and his ex-wife, identified as the offender, had been having custody arrangement disputes for some time in reference to their two juvenile children, both identified as involved others. This evening, he reported it was his time to pickup his children from their mother, according to the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines. He arrived at their normal arranged meeting location, but they never arrived. The victim reported he lived in Petersburg, Indiana and returned home to obtain court documentation. He returned to Evansville and made contact with the offender at her residence in order to pickup the children. He reported their 12 year old son willingly left with him, but his 10 year old daughter refused to go and he explained their mother did nothing to enforce the agreement and make their daughter go with him. He was upset and explained he could not have his 10 year old daughter deciding what she was and was not going to do when it came to her parent`s requests or commands. He reiterated the offender continuously allows their daughter to make the determination whether she is or is not. The victim requested officers speak with the offender. Officers made contact with the mother at 321 Keck Avenue. The mother explained she refused to enforce the issue with their 10 year old daughter because she was going to allow her to determine if she was or was not going visit with her father. She stated she felt like it would be abuse to physically force her to go. It was explained a juvenile child, unless it had been previously authorized by a judge, could not refuse to go with their parent(s). The mother shrugged and said she was not going to do it. She was advised it was her obligation to enforce the guidelines with their daughter, but again she shrugged and acted as if it was not important. A report was submitted to the EPD Misdemeanor Investigations Unit for follow-up. No arrests were made at time of report.		THIRY, K. D.
