Battery- Hff Domestic [am]	On 07/12/2019, at approximately 20:49 hours, the Evansville Police Department was requested behind Los Bravos, located at 3534 N First Avenue, in reference to an assault in progress. The caller reported he had been assaulted and was following the subject, but stopped. Officers located a male, he was identified as both a victim and an offender. He reported his girlfriend of a few months, also identified as an offender and a victim, had struck him on his face during an argument. He had a small scratch / laceration above his right eye. Two witnesses of the altercation were located on the parking lot of Arby`s restaurant. They both reported a heated dispute outside of the male`s truck. They reported the male was aggressive, threw all of the female`s belongings at her while she was in the parking lot and returned to his truck. They reported the female became upset and returned to the male`s truck, banging on the window. The male exited the truck and the dispute continued. The witnesses observed the female strike the male across the face with her hand. She left walking west / southwest behind Los Bravos as he followed her. Officers located the above male`s pickup truck parked on the north side of Arby`s, it was a gray colored 1992 Ford Ranger with a black patch on the driver`s door. The vehicle matched the description of a suspect vehicle from two previous runs shortly before this incident.

LW 1914875 Fc Fraud	Just before this run, around 20:42 hours, officers were requested at Taco Bell, located at 4501 N First Avenue, in reference to a kidnap in progress. The caller, an employee identified as a witness, reported an argument escalated outside of the business. She observed a white female wearing a peach colored shirt exit a gray Ford Ranger, followed by a white male with buzzed hair chasing her down. She reported the male caught the female, dragged her back to his truck and left on North Park Drive. The witness reported the female wore a neck brace, which was ripped from her person and left in the parking lot of the business. The suspect`s vehicle matched the male`s truck above. Shortly after 17:00 hours, same date, a caller reported a white female wearing a floral colored tank top walking west on W Franklin Street by Berry Plastics. They reported the female seemed "out of it" and stopped to check on her. They reported a white male with numerous tattoos stopped in a gray colored Ford Ranger and appeared to speak for the female, stating she was fine. The caller reported the male seemed controlling. They called 9-1-1 and wanted officers to check the female`s welfare. They had left the area prior to officers` arrival. Officers checked the area around Los Bravos and N First Avenue for the female, but she was not located. Based on several witness reports, the male appeared to be the primary aggressor. Due to the female not being located and unable to proceed further with the investigation, the male was released and a report was submitted to the EPD Domestic Violence Investigations Unit for follow-up.
