Reported: 07/13/2019. Officers were dispatched around 1130 hours on 07-13-2019 for a family dispute at 4509 Bryce Dr. The involved parties are mother(VI) and daughter(OF). The victim has been in poor health so the offender has been living with her to help take care of her. Yesterday they started having issues and the victim told the offender she wanted her to leave. They had a disagreement about how and when the offender would get her belongings which has lasted the past two days. The victim stated yesterday(07-12-2019) around 1500 hours the offender came inside her apartment to get some of her belongings. After she left the victim noticed several items from her purse missing such as insurance cards, cash, a giftcard, and other miscellaneous items. The purse was inside a closet in the victims bedroom. The victim also said that the offender only returned her house key and not the key to her mailbox or her storage unit. The offender stated she had not taken any items that were not hers and had given all of the keys back yesterday. The victim said she did not call yesterday when this happened because she wanted to give her daughter the chance to give the items back. The offender showed back up today to get more of her own items out of the apartment. The victim did not want to allow this because she did not want the offender to make multiple trips and wanted her to get all of her things at one time. After they started arguing today the victim called 911. The victim stated she did want to pursue charges now. She was given a case number and advised on how to follow up with the Prosecutors Office.		GREEN, R. E.
