Officers were dispatched to 1520 Delmar, Howell General Baptist Church, in reference to a disorderly conduct. On scene I spoke with John who stated he and his wife, Yvonne, had come to this location to wait in line for the food bank. John stated Yvonne was waiting in a tent by the door when Hubert walked up and stuck his head in. Yvonne told John that Hubert made a sexual comment and she became upset. John stated Yvonne began to scream and yell at Hubert and was taken from this location to a friends house near by to get away from the situation. Yvonne was not located. I spoke with Hubert who advised he did not make any sexual comments and that he was just upset because he thought Yvonne and John had just put chairs near the door to hold their place in line. John stated the problem was solved and officers left. A short time later the resident of 1606 Ewing called in and stated her friend, Yvonne, had showed up and stated someone had tried to rape her. I again spoke with John at this address and he advised that Yvonne had already left and that he was going to drive around and look for her. John believed this was just part of the previous incident when Yvonne told him Hubert made the sexual comment. I also drove around the area and could not locate Yvonne at this time.
