Reported: 08/10/2019. Officers were dispatched to Fairmont Apartments for several vehicles and several individuals who were on the lot facing Shannon Glenn Apartments listening to music and being loud. When I arrived I spoke with the subjects and they agreed to leave. A few minutes after I left the original caller called back in wishing to speak with me. Her and her boyfriend were outside on the balcony when I had handled the noise compliant and had had words with the individuals prior to my arrival when they asked them to turn the music down. After I had drove off from the first run a black female wearing a yellow dress yelled up to the caller that she was going to come beat her ass in the morning. The caller was concerned that the Offender might try to follow through with her threat and wanted a report taken in case anything further were to happen. I drove to the Chuckles on South Green River and located the Offender where she provided me with her name and information. She stated she did not have words with the caller other than to ask how they had bothered them with their music since they were sitting outside on the balcony anyway. The Victim was given a case number and advised to follow up wit the Prosecutors Office if she wished to pursue charges.		GREEN, R. E.
