No victims listed. I, Officer J. Holden, was dispatched to 7900 Eagle Crest Blvd reference a harassment in progress. I arrived on scene and saw a subject exit the building who I believed was an involved subject. Before I could exit my patrol vehicle, the subject went back inside the business quickly. I entered behind him, trying to confirm with employees who I was there for. Several employees would not confirm what was going on, and finally a manager stated he was in fact the subject. The subject was half way across the restaurant and exited out a back emergency exit door I could not see from my location. I took off running after the subject but was unable to order the subject to stop. Employees who were out back walked the subject around to Officer Epmeier, who then placed him in custody. Upon further investigation the male subject stated his ex girlfriend had given him permission to come to her place of work so he could tell her bye. He stated he paid for his drink and had done nothing wrong. The male subject stated he did not see me, and was not running from me. The male subject stated he saw a cop car pull up, but he did not know that I was there to speak with him. The female subject stated she told her ex boyfriend he could come to her work and tell her bye. The female subject stated she never went to court to pursue her protective order she had in place, even after calling and knowing her court time yesterday. The female subject also advised me she spoke with a detective about a previous case against the male subject, and she did not wish to pursue charges. The male subject was barred/banned from the establishment. I spoke in length to the female subject about filing for a protective order, changing her phone number, and doing whatever she could to stay away from the male subject.		HOLDEN, J.
