LW 1921151 Intimidation Threat [am]	Hunt, Cassidy Alexandra (W F, 22) VICTIM of Intimidation Threat [am] (C), at 3900 N Fulton Ave, Evansville, IN, between 11:00, 09/24/2019 and 18:00, 09/24/2019. Reported: 09/24/2019. On 09/24/2019, at approximately 17:06 hours, the Evansville Police Department (EPD) was requested at 3900-D9 N Fulton Avenue in reference to a harassment report. The caller reported his fiancee had received threatening text messages. He reported his fiancee was at the office. Officers arrived on scene and met with a female, identified as the victim, at the office. She reported she and her fiancee, identified as an involved other, had been having marital problems involving a nearby neighbor. She reportedly received messages through social media throughout the day from a family member of the above neighbor, threatening her, her fiancee and their two young children, both toddlers. She showed officers the messages sent by a female, identified as the offender, and they noted there were several threats to assault the victim and slap her two children. Another threat was received they would shoot the victim`s fiancee, the involved other, in the face if need be. However, that threat was not stated toward the involved other personally. Officers attempted to make contact with the above neighbor in order to learn the identity of the person sending the threats and why they had sent them. However, contact was not initially made. Officers eventually learned the identity of the person sending the threats, identified as the offender, and attempted to call her, but one number was no longer valid and the other belonged to an uncooperative family member. Officers finally located the above neighbor and learned the offender was her child`s paternal grandmother. The neighbor stated the victim`s fiancee attempted to have an affair with her while he and the victim were having issues. At some point, the victim located messages between her fiancee and the neighbor and confronted her. She stated an affair never occurred, but reported the victim`s fiancee tried. She understood why the victim would be upset given the circumstances.		THIRY, K. D.

Case #	Description (A)tttempted, (C)ompleted, (F)elony, (M)isdemeanor	Officer
LW 1921136 Theft- Shoplifting < $750	The neighbor reported she attempted to use the community laundry building and had to walk near the victim`s residence to do so. As she did so, she reported the victim and some additional residents said derogatory things toward her and stated, "It would be in your best interest..." She took the victim`s statements as a threat and told her child`s father, who told his mother, the offender. Officers asked the neighbor to call the offender through social media and she answered. Officers spoke with the offender asked what had happened. She reported she was advised by her son the victim and others were going to "jump on", assault, her grandchild`s mother. She stated she was not going to have it and would fight anyone if they tried to do so, whether she would go to jail or not. She stated it was only a misdemeanor and would have no issues dealing with it. Officers explained to her some of the threats she made through social media could be a felony if they had been made toward specific people and she advised she was not aware of that. Officers further explained the situation to her and she understood why the victim would be upset, but also reiterated she would not accept her grandchild`s mother being assaulted. It was explained to her any physical confrontation was doubtful and that she needed to cease with communication / threats toward the victim. She stated she would do so and had blocked the victim on social media. She was advised the victim would be told to calm down as well. Officers returned and spoke with the victim. She was advised what the neighbor and offender had claimed and she acknowledged she had made statements toward the neighbor because she was hurt by her actions. However, she denied threatening the neighbor. She understood how family of the neighbor would take her comments and why they would confront her. She stated she was just upset and would not make any future statements. The victim wanted a report to make a record of the incident. She was advised how to seek a protective order against the offender. She was also advised to save screenshots of the messages for court purposes. The offender made statements to the victim in an attempt to place her in fear by threatening to harm her and her children. She also made statements to harm the victim`s fiancée, but those threats were not directly communicated to him by the offender. A report was submitted to the EPD Misdemeanor Investigations Unit for follow-up. No arrests were made at time of report.	EPMEIER, A. G.

Reported: 09/24/2019. On the listed date and time I, Officer C. Grimes, witnessed a white passenger car traveling North on Judson Ave. The vehicle came to the intersection of Judson and Washington, where the OF turned West on Washington Ave without signaling. The OF then came to the intersection of Washington and SE 8th, where they turned N onto 8th without signaling. A traffic stop was conducted just North of that intersection. During the stop I could smell, what I know through my training and experience to be, the odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle. The occupants of the vehicle were asked to exit. I advised the occupants that I could smell marijuana, and asked if there was anymore in the vehicle. The Driver, Faith Wood, advised that there was some marijuana in the glove box. During a search of the vehicle I located a plastic baggie, containing a green leafy substance, inside the glove box. The driver admitted that the marijuana was hers. She was cited for the traffic violation and possession of marijuana, reference UTT#8220139709. The narcotics were collected and placed into evidence.		GRIMES, C. B.

Reported: 09/25/2019. Officers were dispatched to a domestic violence in progress. While en route, we were advised that the suspect had left the scene. Upon arrival, Officer Harrington and I spoke to the victim, who was holding a baby. The victim stated that the suspect was the father of her child. She stated that she and the suspect had been traveling north on Lodge, when they began arguing over her cell phone. She stated that while she was driving, the suspect began to pull her seatbelt, grab her hair, and hit her on her head neck and right arm. According to the victim, her seventh month old daughter was in the back seat. She told me that she began to scream since there were people around, which is when the suspect left her vehicle and headed east on Adams. The victim had bruises on her right and as well as redness on the back of her neck. Officers set a perimeter and K9 attempted to track. The suspect was not located. I gave the victim information for Victim`s Rights and resources available for her to seek out.		SPENCER, J.
